A Central News dispatch from Amsterdam says that the German newspapers are exhibiting considerable concern on account of the greatly-increased artillery activity in Belgium between Ypres and Wytschaete. In Germany, this is believed to be the forerunner of a new and fierce action.

PARIS STATEMENT.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, June 6, 10:45 p.m.—The official statement issued by the War Department tonight reads:

"This morning, after the bombardment of our positions between the Ailette River and the Laon road, and northwest of Braye-en-Laonnois, the Germans delivered several attacks at various points in this sector. Two attempts against the Bois-du-Mortier, north of Vauxaillon, broke down immediately by our fire and gave to the enemy no other result than appreciable losses.

"The Germans concentrated their efforts north of the Chemin-des-Dames, where they attacked on the front of Pantheon-la-Coyere farm.

"The enemy attack, repulsed in its entirety, was not able to reach our lines except at one point south of Filain. In the neighborhood of our Bovettes salient, after a stubborn engagement, some trench elements of the first line remained in the hands of the enemy. Everywhere else our assailants were driven back to their own trenches.

"The day was calm on the remainder of the front save in Belgium, where spirited artillery fighting took place in the sector of Nieuport.

"Eastern theater, June 5: Cannonading occurred at the Cerna bend and in the region of Monastir. An enemy airplane was brought down by a British machine."

"During the course of the day both artilleries were active along the whole front, particularly before Dixmude and between Steenstraete and Het-sas. On the latter part of our front were carried out fires of destruction on enemy batteries and works. Our aviators bombarded the stations at Vyswegen and Langemarck."

HONOR ROLL COLOSSAL.

Returns Exceed the Estimates.

Tremendous Task Ahead for the Draft and Boards of Exemption.

Registration Still Goes on Where Machinery Proved Inadequate.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The mighty roll of honor of American manhood had begun to reach Washington tonight from the States that had completed their count of the men of military age registered yesterday. At a late hour only a few complete returns had been received, but preliminary unofficial returns were sufficient to show that millions of men await the call to arms.

The official figures were too scant for an accurate estimate of the total of the men who have registered. The first reports showed that the census bureau estimates of eligibles had not been equalled, but officials pointed out that the numbers by which one or two cities alone had exceeded the estimates would wipe out the entire deficiency of the several smaller States sending in the first official returns.

TIME EXTENDED.

In some of these cities registration still was in progress today, the Attorney-General having approved the action of Provost-Marshal-General Crowder in authorizing an extension of time where cards were lacking or where the registration machinery proved otherwise inadequate to its task.

Until the records of the great manufacturing centers are complete results of the registration cannot be gauged accurately. Gen. Crowder said tonight that it was not to be expected that the registration figures would check with the census estimates, because some hundreds of thousands of men in the army and navy and National Guard were not required to register.

Messages from Governors all over the country showed that there are relatively few slackers to be dealt with. Already the machinery of the government is moving to bring these few to a reckoning.

RELY ON PEOPLE.

The chief factor in bringing them to book, however, will not be legal processes. Gen. Crowder and the forces of the Department of Justice place full reliance in the people themselves in bringing forward these shirkers. It is upon the indignation of men and women whose sons or other kin have faced the issue with courage and cheerfully recorded their names that the government chiefly depends to bring slackers into the open.

As the registration figures came in tonight, the work of preparing for the next great step proceeded without interruption. Already the regulations which will govern exemptions are virtually complete. It is probable that a few days will see the work of assembling the boards in each community under way. The personal honor of the President, of Secretary Baker and of every member of Congress who voted for the bill stands pledged to the statement that even-handed justice and fairness to all men, high or low, white or black, will govern in the great task.

HUGE TASK AHEAD.

Much must be done before the names of those who will compose the armies can be enrolled. Millions of registration cards must be examined and classified. Those who are wholly unfitted physically for a soldier's grim business must be eliminated; the quotas of the States must be assigned; the machinery of distributing this quota equally through every remote county or precinct of each State must be perfected.

The local exemption boards will almost equal in number the registration precincts. Assurance has been given that a man's own neighbors will be the judges to pass upon his case. There were more than 125,000 precincts and equal decentralization will characterize the exemption machinery.

President Wilson, upon whom the law imposes the duty of selecting and appointing all these boards, probably will delegate this authority to the State officials.

BOARDS OF REVIEW.

Then comes the appointment of boards of review, to which each man who will be chosen by his local board for army duty may carry his case if he feels himself wronged.

These, broadly speaking, will be created for each Federal judicial district and the President may appoint them himself.

There is no statement yet available as to the process by which men will be drawn to appear before the exemption boards. Secretary Baker has stated that something in the nature of a jury wheel might be employed, but beyond that no information has been given out.

Reports today from all parts of the country bore out the indications of last night that the great enter-

EXPOSES GERMAN PLAN TO COLLECT INDEMNITY FROM UNITED STATES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.] (30)

DENVER, June 7.—That Germany recently had offered the Entente Allies an indemnity of $30,000,000,000 to end the war, and had planned to collect this in turn from the United States, was told a Denver audience last night by Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, speaking in the interest of the Liberty Loan.

"Not long ago a tentative offer was made to the Allies to end the war by Germany paying an indemnity of $30,000,000,000," he said. "Germany to retain her army and navy and have the freedom of the seas.

"Back of this proposed plan was a purpose to send the German army and navy to the United States and collect this vast indemnity from this country."

The Allies had refused this, Dr. Hillis declared, thereby preventing "the conquering of this country."

SPLIT ON CANADIAN COALITION.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.] (30)

OTTAWA, June 6.—Premier Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, leader of the opposition, appear to have failed to reach an agreement for the formation of a coalition ministry representative of the two parties in Parliament. Coalition was proposed by the Premier for the purpose of bringing support to the bill for compulsory military service to furnish reinforcements for the 400,000 Canadians at the front.

Great hostility to the compulsory service measure has developed in Canadian organized labor circles. Considerable dissatisfaction also has been expressed in the agricultural districts. These conditions are believed to have led Sir Wilfrid finally to demur from the proposal that he bring his followers to unite with the Conservative party, which they now oppose. The railway, banking, manufacturing and other large interests of the country have strongly supported coalition.

GERMAN LOSSES PLEASE LONDON.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.] (30)

LONDON, June 7.—The morning papers today display with gratification the news of the toll exacted from the German air raiders, which they remark was a terrible price to pay for a raid which effected virtually nothing of military importance.

It is generally assumed that ten German machines were lost, which, some of the commentators express the belief, is almost enough to make the Germans cease repetitions of their airplane raids. The damage inflicted on the raiders, taken in connection with the reduction in sinkings of vessels by submarines, and naval and airplane attacks on enemy bases in Belgium, has instilled a spirit of elation in the editorials and news columns generally.

BRITAIN PRAISES AMERICA.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.] (30)

LONDON, June 7.—Commenting on the success of the military registration in the United States, the Morning Post says:

"The magnificent response is cordially appreciated in this country. It is a sign of the high part America is destined to play in this great conflict for the restoration and maintenance of civilization. America's naval help already has been of the greatest use and we look forward to the presence of Americans alongside our troops on land and in the air."

The Daily Express says the registration of 10,000,000 Americans is perhaps the most heartening event that has happened in three years.

RUSSIAN TREATIES STOLEN.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.] (30)

AMSTERDAM (via London) June 6.—The Hamburger Fremdenblatt, a copy of which has been received here, publishes a Stockholm report, which is alleged to have emanated from Russian sources, that the original treaties between Russia and western powers, which were concluded since 1913, have disappeared from the Petrograd Foreign Office.

The rumor connects the disappearance of the treaties with "recent mysterious burglaries at the Foreign Office and in foreign embassies in the Russian capital."

FOOD DISTURBANCE IN NORWAY.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.] (30)

LONDON, June 7.—A dispatch to the Central News from Christiania says that great demonstrations against the unsatisfactory food situation were held throughout Norway Wednesday. The government, with a view to preventing rioting, prohibited the sale of alcoholic beverages for three days.

The dispatch adds that all stores in Christiania shut their doors; that the gas works and electrical plants are idle, and that nearly all the workingmen are striking.

CALIFORNIA SOCIALISTS' THREAT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.] (30)

SAN BERNARDINO, June 6.—California Socialists will withdraw from the national party unless the anti-draft resolution adopted at the Socialist convention April 7 is repudiated, according to a statement made here tonight by N. A. Richardson, member of the State Executive Committee of the Socialist party of California, who was the Socialist candidate for Governor in 1914. Richardson said he had sent notice to that effect to the national secretary of the party.

GERMANS FIRE SHIP AT PERNAMBUCO.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.] (30)

PERNAMBUCO (Brazil) June 6.—Germans last night set fire to the steamer Cap Vilano, which was transferred yesterday from the German to the Brazilian flag. The steamer is the second largest of the interned German merchantmen in this port.

The twelve other German steamers here were transferred to the Brazilian flag today.

MARINE LANES GUARDED AGAINST ALL SURPRISES.

United States Sailors Keen for the Chase of the Divers.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

THE BRITISH PORT BASE OF THE AMERICAN FLOTILLA (via London) June 6.—The American destroyers have completed their first month of active service in the great war. They have been favored with excellent weather, which is a big factor in anti-submarine warfare. Most of the time they have had sunny skies and smooth seas, with just enough squall and storm to put their seamanship to test. The favorable weather conditions made their task of learning the technique of anti-submarine warfare much simpler and easier.

The American boats are assigned to work hand in hand with the British squadrons, being virtually assimilated into the British naval machinery here. A destroyer is usually out from four to five days and then returns to port for two or three days while coaling and loading supplies. Thus every American sailor gets at least half a day shore leave practically every week.

TAKE THEIR TURNS.

The Americans take their turn with the British boats in all routine work of patrol and convoy. The work, although largely routine, is interesting and the Americans have never yet found time hanging heavy on their hands. The lookout must be constant and eyes must be trained to an unbelievable degree of keenness. The young Americans take zealously to this business of finding the periscopic needle in the nautical haystack and daily reports of submarines sighted, of observations made, of wireless warnings sent broadcast show that the American boats are already making an average of results almost as satisfactory as the long-experienced British boats with which they are operating.

There has been no actual battle as yet between an American destroyer and the enemy, although several reports show that U-boat have been sighted and have been compelled to beat a hasty retreat to the depths of the sea.

An assignment to convoy a liner "from home," that is, from an American port, is regarded as an especially choice morsel. A trans-Atlantic liner which sights the American flag approaching to escort her to land never fails to respond with a great waving of flags and handkerchiefs from her decks, and there is a fine exchange of wig-wagging signals in lieu of handshakes. Several American liners can already testify to the vigilant work of the American destroyers as convoys. Occasionally a fortunate liner finds herself being escorted to port by American and British destroyers, side by side, circling about her like twin sisters, a visible sign of the new alliance.

The American boats were ready for duty the minute they arrived. This was something of a pleasant surprise for the British naval men. It had been expected that some time would be necessary for certain installations and fittings, but the Americans had everything in readiness and were at once assigned to work.

Shore leave is generous on the American ships and the American sailor is constantly in evidence in this village, in the countryside roundabout and in a near-by city, where more metropolitan pleasures are available than in the restricted limits of this little place. The people of the towns have taken the American sailor and his strangely spendthrift ways right into their hearts. The American sailor seems always to have money, which is not so strange when it is considered that his rate of pay is considerably higher than that of the British tar.

TRAVEL FIRST CLASS.

"The American gets a dollar every time we get a shilling," is a common expression among the admiring British seamen. One of the American sailor's favorite ways of showing his opulence is his habit of always of traveling first class on the railroad which takes him from the village up to the city, a trip of a few miles. The extra cost is only a few pence, but the unheard of idea of a common sailor traveling first class strikes the populace as a startling and audacious maneuver worthy of the best traditions of American extravagance.

Local tradesmen who expected to find the visitor an easy mark soon learned their mistake, however, for he is seldom fooled twice and quickly learns to demand value for his money. Tea time in the village now has an American flavor. In all the little inns and shops and farther afield, one may any afternoon find groups of British and American sailors drinking their tea and swapping yarns in true seamanly fashion.

ENJOYS TEA HABIT.

The American quickly acclimates himself to the afternoon tea habit and finds it an amiable and satisfactory substitute for other things, with plenty of opportunity for confidential chats with his new allies on a thousand and one subjects which his active mind has been turning over since his arrival here.

There are other places where one may almost always find groups of blue uniformed Americans. One is the local cemetery in a green wood atop the cliffs, where are buried many victims of the German submarines whose graves are kept green by the visitors.

Triumph.

EXCITING RUNNING FIGHT ON ATLANTIC DESCRIBED.

State Department Announces Engagement in Which Many Shots are Exchanged, Ending in Victory for Steamer Flying Stars and Stripes.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 6.—A German submarine is believed to have been sunk by an armed American steamer yesterday in a running fight lasting an hour and a half, in which thirty-five shots were fired by the submarine and twenty-five by the steamer. An official announcement by the State Department today says the steamer's final shot apparently struck the submarine, which rose clear out of the water and stood stern-end up for a few seconds. She then disappeared."

The department's announcement follows:

"The Department of State is advised by telegraph of an engagement between an armed American steamer and a submarine. The guns of the steamer were manned by an American naval crew. The submarine was first seen at about 7000 yards. She had a six-inch gun forward and another aft. She flew no flag.

"Upon sight of the submarine the steamer hoisted the American flag and waited for about ten minutes. As the submarine approached the steamer fired. The submarine responded. The steamer kept a speed that would permit the submarine to come within range. Then followed a fight lasting for an hour and a half. The submarine came to within a distance of 2300 yards. By that time the submarine had fired thirty-five shots and the steamer twenty-five. The last shot of the steamer apparently struck the submarine, which rose clear out of the water and stood stern-end up for a few seconds. Then she disappeared. The captain of the steamer and the commander of the guard believe that the submarine was sunk. The steamer suffered no damage."

STOCKHOLM CONFERENCE VIEWED AS PREMATURE.

"Should Have Consulted Us First," the English Statement.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PETROGRAD (via London) June 6.—Arthur Henderson, British Minister without portfolio; Albert Thomas, French Minister of Munitions, and Emile Vandervelde, Belgian Minister of Munitions, have sent a letter to the Council of Soldiers' and Workmen's Delegates expressing surprise that a call had been issued by the council for an international conference to consider means of ending the war before the negotiations between the British, French and Belgian delegations and the council had been concluded. The letter mentions the fact that the council invited the British majority and minority organizations representing the labor classes to come to Russia to discuss conditions under which such a gathering would be called, and adds:

"We could not expect you would convoke a conference under such conditions which the previous negotiations did not allow us to foresee. During the negotiations we showed our agreement with you on the peace formula of the Soldiers' and Workmen's Delegates, on the express conditions that this peace formula had been clearly defined and drawn up in such a manner as to exclude neither liberation of territories in accord with the wishes of their inhabitants nor reparation for damage caused to invaded countries. On the other hand, we formally declared it was impossible for us to support a plenary conference before having drawn up by common agreement a series of conditions definite enough to remove all doubt, to discourage all diplomatic maneuvers by our enemies and to repudiate Socialist factions which would not be willing to co-operate in the work of anti-imperialism for which you are convoking the international conference. We are more than convinced that a plenary meeting, to which would be admitted those supporting the present policy of the majority Socialists in the central empires, would be harmful and dangerous."

The letter adds that it would be possible to think of common action only when the German Socialists have issued a declaration proclaiming a rupture with the imperialism of aggression and with the Emperor.

TWENTY-NINE COUNTIES TURN IN DRAFT TOTALS.

Director of Registration Estimates that Between 300,000 and 350,000 Eligibles in State Have Enrolled for Possible Military Service—Councils of Defense to Continue to Take Names of All Presenting Themselves.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, June 6.—Up to 9 o'clock tonight twenty-nine counties of the State had been heard from by the State Registration Bureau, totalling 114,607 registrations. In addition to these counties, the bureau had also received complete returns from seven cities in the State giving a total of 41,952. The complete figures received at the State Registration Bureau follow:

Counties complete: Calaveras, 2095; Colusa, 941; Contra Costa, 6293; Fresno, 8748; Kern, 7125; Mariposa, 572; Nevada, 976; San Joaquin, 2305; Santa Clara, 4545; Solano, 4174; Stanislaus, 4054; Sutter, 916; Alpine, 42; Amador, 1095; Del Norte, 381; Eldorado, 603; Glenn, 905; Kings, 2202; Lake, 918; Madera, 1246; Merced, 2476; Napa, 1567; Orange, 4686; San Benito, 986; San Francisco, 51,188; San Mateo, 3731; Sierra, 265; Placer, 1872; Mono, 281. Total, 114,607.

Cities complete: Stockton, 5023; Fresno, 3962; San Jose, 2855; Pasadena, 2554; Oakland, 16,881; Sacramento, 8447. Total, 41,952.

Director of Registration Merritt estimates the total for the State will be between 300,000 and 350,000.

The State Bureau of Registration issued instructions tonight to county councils of defense to continue to register anyone presenting himself for that purpose, whether he has a good excuse for his failure to register yesterday.

"Ascertain his excuse, however," says the telegram sent out by the bureau, "and make note of same and list those whose failure seems to you willful and blameworthy, but for the next few days exercise a liberal policy in judging them."

A message was received by Gov. Stephens tonight from Provost Marshal-General Crowder relative to persons who have lost their registration certificates. In such cases, says the message, the regulation board which has the card of such person, shall upon application verify the fact of registration and upon proper evidence of good faith give a written statement signed by the clerk setting forth the fact of registration and a statement to the effect that evidence has been submitted proving the loss of the registration certificate."

TIDE OF GOLD ENTERING AMERICA BEGINS TO EBB.

Importations Stop Altogether and Turn Comes at a Time When the United States Apparently Faces the Greatest Industrial Period of its History—Metal Being Exported Going to Japan.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 6.—America's great gain of gold, which has grown with almost every month for two and one-half years, has ceased. Gold importations have stopped altogether and the flow has begun the other way, with indications that it will continue in comparatively small volume for some time. The turning of the tide comes at a time when the country faces the greatest industrial period of its history; greater, officials believe, than the last twelve months, which witnessed the establishment of a $6,000,000,000 record for American exports.

Cessation of gold imports to settle trade balances when trade balances are heavier than ever before against foreign buyers is virtually a novelty in American finance. On the whole, it is regarded as a healthy development, as further accretions might tend toward inflation. All foreign purchases will be paid for, of course, but in a different form, the payment being made by money furnished the buyers of the United States and obtained by the flotation of bond issues.

With the establishment of these credits, it is explained, the Entente governments who have bought the bulk of American exports have found it unnecessary to continue sending gold to settle trade balances. They will send their bonds instead to secure the credits advanced them.

Neutral nations will continue to settle their balances largely with gold. Neutrals having trade balances against the United States, officials believe, will call for settlement by the export of gold from this country.

Evidences of this intention are manifest in recent gold shipments to Japan, Spain and Mexico. Japan's trade balance last year against the United States was $75,000,000; for the first nine months of the present fiscal year it is $55,000,000. The United States will ship approximately $25,000,000 in gold to Japan this month and probably $10,000,000 to Spain.

The Federal Reserve Board is working to conserve in this country most of the gold shipped here since the war started. Pending amendments to the reserve act are designed to strengthen the board's powers to retard gold exports.

Before the tide turned the United States had accumulated $9,121,000,000 in gold, about one-third of the world's total. Treasury figures just compiled show that during May the country exported $23,000,000 more gold than it imported.

DECREASE AGAIN SHOWN IN TOLL OF SUBMARINES.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, June 6.—The weekly report of the British Admiralty concerning British shipping losses by mines or submarines says that fifteen vessels of 1600 tons and over and three vessels under 1600 tons and five fishing vessels were sunk last week. Summary:

Arrivals numbered 2632 and sailings, 2642.

British merchant ships sunk by mine or submarine of over 1600 tons, including one previously sunk, fifteen; under 1600 tons, three; British fishing boats, five.

British merchant ships unsuccessfully attacked, including four previously, seventeen.

The above report, compared with that of the previous week, shows a decrease of three in vessels of 1600 tons and over sunk, but an increase of two in the category of less than 1600 tons.

The new report shows an increase of three in the number of fishing vessels sunk, five as against two the previous week.

prise had been carried through without objection or opposition from a sufficient number of citizens to be worthy of mention. Registration was completed virtually without disorder; certainly with only a small part of the disturbances that usually characterize national elections.

Gen. Crowder tonight outlined what is to follow the great enactment:

"Registration marks the completion of the first well-defined step in the execution of the selective service law," he said. "The actual recording has been practically finished in a single day, but the arrangement and copying of the cards, their segregation into appropriate groups, the publication of lists and the garnering in of delayed registrations will consume a week or ten days. In the meantime the machinery of the registration is being readjusted to serve as machinery for the further execution of the law. This work is proceeding rapidly and should be completed coincidently with the tying up of the loose ends of registration.

THEN THE DRAWING.

"When this is all done regulations governing the jurisdictions of the local boards will be issued and the machinery will then be ready to proceed to the drawing which will result in a determination of the order in which registered men will be examined for the purpose of secret selection for military or industrial service. When this list of order is determined, it is expected that the War Department will be able to make a definite call for men and as soon as this data is available the quotas necessary to fill the first call will be assigned to the several States.

"The policy of decentralization, the application of which has so successfully consummated the registration, will be adhered to throughout. The various States, knowing the number of men which they must call and the order in which each particular man is to be examined, can then assign to the various local boards the task of selecting the number of men necessary to complete the quota for the locality under the jurisdiction of each board.

"Precise time limits cannot be set at present for the reason that it is desired to have uniformity of operation of the machines throughout the nation. Mountainous, heavily-wooded and sparsely-settled States cannot move with the expedition of compact and densely-populated States. While dates are not to be named precisely, these steps will follow each other promptly with a fixed purpose of giving as much time as possible to men who are selected to adjust their affairs, to make their farewells and avoid the inconvenience and suffering that would result from a hasty change from civil to military status."

ALLEGED GANG HEAD ADMITS TO A GERMAN PLOT.

Link Between Kidnaping of Banker's Baby and Supposed Plan to Spirit Jeweler Away Established — Confessions Concern Design on Munitions Maker.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SPRINGFIELD (Mo.) June 6.—The link between the kidnaping of the 14-months-old son of J. H. Keet, wealthy retired banker of Springfield, and the alleged plan to kidnap C. A. Clement, Springfield jeweler, was thought tonight to have been established by the police with the arrest of George Walker, driver of a taxicab. Walker's arrest was the seventh in the case since last night.

In none of the alleged confessions made by persons under arrest in connection with the plots has a connection with the Keet kidnaping been found, but developments that will shed some light on the case are expected soon. The five men and one woman held before Walker's arrest all are charged with attempting to kidnap Clement.

The alleged confessions also connect them with a plot to kidnap a baby here and a St. Louis munitions maker.

Whereabouts of the Keet baby tonight still was as great a mystery as at any time since he was missed one week ago.

Claud Piersol, alleged head of the gang that planned the Clement kidnaping, made a signed confession today to detectives in which he told of being approached last winter by German agents who desired aid in attempts to suppress munitions traffic.

INDICT ANTI-DRAFT MEN IN NEW YORK.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NEW YORK, June 6.—First Federal indictments for violation of the selective draft law were returned here today against Louis Kramer, self-styled "citizen of the world," and Charles Francis Phillips, Columbia University student. They refused to submit to registration yesterday. Both defendants are already under indictment in connection with alleged anti-conscription conspiracies.

RUSSIAN SLACKERS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) June 6.—Action on the refusal of members of the Russian colony of Molokans, near Glendale, in refusing to register yesterday was deferred today, pending investigation. The Russians filed an affidavit at the registration booth stating their religious belief against taking life in any form. Assistant United States Attorney Langston said the law makes no excuse for not registering.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PRESIDIO (Tex.) June 6.—Francisco Villa was accidentally injured when his horse fell with him and kicked him in the chest during the battle of Sauceda, May 27. This became known today when the man with whom Villa stayed at San Jose came here and said he had entertained Villa while he was injured. He said Villa remained at his house three days until he had recovered sufficiently to rejoin his troops. This accounted for Villa's absence from the Ojinaga fight.

KRONSTADT SOCIALISTS RUNNING GOVERNMENT.

KRONSTADT, June 6 (via London, June 7.)—The Kronstadt secessionists administration is now fully organized and exercising all administrative, military, social and economic functions of an independent government.

The supreme executive is a governing council of thirty members, of whom twenty are soldiers and sailors and the remainder workmen, including one woman, who was elected from among the factory hands, and also one representative each of the local Socialist organizations.

Ultimate authority rests in a parliament of 318 members, elected by the soldiers, sailors and workmen, with three representatives of each Socialist organization and three women factory hands, who are said to be extremely active social workers and enthusiastic propagandists.

The party groupings in the Parliament already are clearly defined. The social revolutionaries dominate in the general political questions. In pursuance of the Kronstadt programme of discouraging dominant personalities as being dangerous to liberty, the government has no ministers.

All departmental work is done by commissions, the members of which are to have equal power. There are commissions resembling petty war ministries which control the actions of the military and naval commanders, who are all locally elected; also a general revision commission exercising the functions of a controller-general, which will check up expenditures and the work of departmental heads.

WARM RECEPTION ACCORDED IN RAID ON BRITAIN.

In Great Battle Over the Sea Allied Aviators from Dunkirk Account for Nearly Half of the Machines Which Bombed Essex and Kent.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, June 6.—Eight out of eighteen German airplanes that took part in yesterday's air raid on Essex and Kent were driven down by British airmen. Four of these were to a certainty completely destroyed, while two others are believed to have been put totally out of commission.

Of the eighteen machines that started in the raid two were brought down near the British coast after having dropped their bombs, as reported in the official British statement. The remaining sixteen were engaged by ten naval airmen from Dunkirk, who in a great battle over the sea destroyed two more of the Germans and drove down another four, two of which, it is reasonable to believe, according to the official report, were completely put out of action.

PATROLS VIGILANT.

From the moment the Germans left the Belgian coast they were engaged, first with patrols over the channel, then with the land forces in England and later, on their return with the squadron of airplanes from Dunkirk.

Warning was given the inhabitants of the districts visited and they were able to take to cover so that the casualties, while considerable, aggregating twelve killed and thirty-six wounded, were much smaller than in the case of Folkestone, which had no warning.

Two successful bombing raids were carried out against hostile shipping at Zeebrugge on Monday night in which many tons of bombs were dropped, it was officially announced today.

A hostile airplane was driven into the sea fifteen miles from land and a kite balloon shot down, the English machines returning safely, it is added.

RAID ON SHEERNESS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BERLIN, June 6 (via London.)—A German air squadron has dropped more than 5000 kilograms of bombs on military establishments at Sheerness, Eng., German army headquarters announced today. Good hits were observed.

Reporting on the aviation activities of the western front forces, the official statement says:

"During numerous aerial battles along the front the enemy lost eleven airplanes."

This raid was reported by the British authorities yesterday. Sheerness is a strongly fortified seaport and naval arsenal in Kent.

CLARK BUYS LOAN BONDS.

British Advance.

p.m.)—The Italian line before Flondar, on the front above Trieste, has been withdrawn slightly, the War Office announces. The Italians took 256 prisoners, including 10 officers. Two enemy airplanes were brought down. Italian airplanes have dropped more than two tons of high explosives on the St. Pietro station of the Trieste-Lubiana railway and returned safely.

AUSTRIANS "COME BACK."

VIENNA, June 5 (via London, June 6, 12:27 p.m.)—The Austrians have regained positions taken by the Italians south of Jamiano, on the front above Trieste, and have captured more than 6500 Italians in a battle lasting a day and a half, the War Office announces. In all, 22,000 prisoners have been taken on this part of the front, it is stated.

BERLIN STATEMENT.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BERLIN, June 6 (via London, 4:02 p.m.)—A British attack delivered yesterday only succeeded in penetrating the German position at the Roeux railway station, where fighting continues for small sections of trenches, says today's army headquarters statement.

The artillery battle in the Wytschaete salient continued with only short interruptions, the report adds.

In its report today on operations along the Macedonian front army headquarters announces that British airmen dropped incendiary bombs on ripening grain fields on the east bank of the Struma.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 6.—A force of 25,000 Filipino troops, wherever they may be needed, was offered President Wilson today by Manuel Quezon, former Philippine delegate in Congress and now President of the Philippine Senate.

After his call at the White House Mr. Quezon issued a statement saying the Filipino people were ready to stand on the "democratic principle that he who is unwilling to serve his country in the hour of need as a soldier is unworthy to help govern his country as a citizen."

"There is no division of opinion among our people," he continued, "as to the duty and the privilege of standing by the United States, now arming to fight to a victorious finish in the cause of human liberty. The hour that the news was received in Manila of America's entry into the war the people gathered together in meetings and immediate steps were taken to demonstrate that the Filipinos, without exception, were loyal to America and eager to prove their loyalty by individual and general sacrifices. Fifty thousand people answered the call spontaneously and marched to the residence of Gov.-Gen. Harrison and cheered as one man the official representative of American authority in the archipelago.

"This feeling of loyalty is as deep-rooted as it is natural. It is the result of the wise policy of the Wilson-Harrison administration which has made the Philippines actually self-governing and pledged the future complete independence of the islands.

"There are no slackers in the Philippines. We have more volunteers than we shall probably be able to use."

Stephens Urges Individual Economy and Asks Newspaper Men to Continue Good Work for the Marine Corps Week—He Regrets His Age.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—Gov. William D. Stephens declared here today that California's greatest future work is the providing of foodstuffs for the nation and her allies. He was addressing members of the San Francisco Newspaper Men's Club.

He urged individual economy in the use of food, saying that the time has come when families cannot waste food necessities.

"California did a big work yesterday when practically every man of the required age was registered," said Gov. Stephens. "I regret more than I can say that I am not young enough to go on the honor roll with the thousands registered.

"I am proud of the work of the State Council of Defense. The work of the thirty-three big men and women on the council is already making itself felt.

"I ask you newspaper men to continue your good work. Next week is Marine Corps week. Dwell on the work of the Marine Corps. It is the oldest branch of our military service.

"We are prepared to sacrifice and endure. In this fight for democracy we must not forget the Liberty bonds and the work of the Red Cross."

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DETROIT, June 6.—A storm of cyclonic intensity that swept over Central Lower Michigan today caused the deaths of at least three persons, injuries to nearly thirty others, and did property damage which it is estimated will amount to nearly $1,000,000. Jackson, Battle Creek, Lansing and other cities sustained considerable property damage.

CANADIANS HOLD ELECTRIC STATION.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

OTTAWA (Ont.) June 6.—The recapture by troops from British Columbia of the electric station southwest of Lens, says an unofficial dispatch received here today from Canadian army headquarters in France, was accomplished with comparatively small losses—fewer than many of the skirmishes that have taken place around the station. In the face of bombs, gas shells and heavy guns employed by the Germans, the Canadians gained and have held steadfastly to every foot of territory. The station is described as "the most important outwork of defenses in Lens."

War Secretary Tells the Graduating Class of the University of North Carolina that American Genius will Make the Submarine in Warfare Impossible.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHAPEL HILL (N. C.) June 6.—The 10,000,000 young men who yesterday registered as ready to answer when the nation may call "have made a complete answer to the charge that an imperial government is necessary to efficiency," Secretary Baker of the War Department today told the graduating class of the University of North Carolina.

Discussing the conduct of the war with Germany, Secretary Baker declared the submarine must be exterminated.

"We must go into the air where they carried the war," he said. "We must use their means of fighting but God forbid that even by accident an American soldier should ever take the life of a woman or child."

Secretary Baker expressed confidence that before "this war is over American genius will find a way to make the submarine impossible."

REPORT DISCREDITS SOLACE PATIENTS.

COMMISSION SAYS IT IS BASED ON GOSSIP AND HEARSAY.

Investigate Charges Made by Thirty Sailors Who Claim They Were Mistreated by Medical Officers and Find that Sick Men Were Well Cared For.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The protest, or "round robin," signed by thirty patients aboard the navy hospital ship Solace, charging mistreatment by the medical officers, "rests on gossip and hearsay," according to the report of the civilian commission sent to the fleet by Secretary Daniels to investigate conditions.

After interviewing more than 100 men who were aboard the ship during the period covered by the complaint, the commission, composed of Dr. William H. Welch, Johns Hopkins University, and Dr. Abram Flexner and Nathan Straus of New York, reported that:

"The general testimony is to the effect that they received what they wanted, needed and asked for. There was, in our judgment, no lack of kindness and intelligent care on the part of Dr. Blackwood (commanding the Solace) and his assistants. They were dealing throughout the month of May with an unprecedented emergency and in handling it they acquitted themselves admirably."

The report asserted that the medical personnel in charge of the fleet's naval hospitals "are all entitled to the highest praise for their devoted and untiring efforts and for the success they achieved under extremely difficult conditions."

In making the report public tonight Secretary Daniels issued a statement declaring that "not only do the findings of these three famous health experts clear the navy of a shameful attack, but they should carry a message of reassurance to the parents of the nation." He said that the charges, first receiving publicity through Senator Calder and then given country-wide circulation, are shown to have no other base than malice.

The commissioners reported that patients and convalescents on the Solace and in land hospitals were questioned in the absence of officers and that the witnesses spoke without reserve and with "no evidence whatsoever of fear or restraint." It was learned during May the fleet was receiving new men at a rate of 700 a day with measles, mumps, scarlet fever and cerebro-meningitis usually prevalent in communities from which the recruits were drawn. As a result the Solace, with a normal capacity for thirty infectious cases, at one time was forced to care for 101.

Charges that proper precautions were not taken to prevent the spread of disease, the report declares, are unanswerably denied by the fact that there was virtually no cross-infection either on the ship or at the shore hospitals.

The specific charge that fever patients were compelled to carry their own baggage on boarding the ship are dismissed as "absolutely untrue."

PRESIDENT OPPOSES RELAXING LAW.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 6.—President Wilson today in a letter to Gov. Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania expressed his opposition to relaxing laws by which safeguards have been thrown about labor as a war measure.

"I feel that there is no necessity for such action," wrote the President, "and that it would lead to a slackening of the energy of the nation rather than to increase it, besides being very unfair to the laboring people themselves."

There has been a movement in some States to lengthen hours of labor.

NO WONDER THESE NOTE MADE CONVICTS RIOT

Letters from Women of Esoteric Society Declared Have Created Atmosphere at Joliet Penitentiary Made Men Hard to Control — Disturbance When They are Suppressed.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

JOLIET (Ill.) June 6. — Letters written to prisoners at the Joliet Penitentiary by women members of the Oriental Esoteric League, which prompted Warden Archie Bowen to bar all but near relatives from visiting the men and led to the rioting Tuesday, were made public today.

In handing the letters over to newspapermen, Warden Bowen declared that they have been responsible for much of the unrest prevailing at the institution and have kept the men continually bemoaning their fate. The practice of women writing to convicts whom they have never seen is an old one and has led many a woman into a trap set by wily confidence men. Not a few women who write passionate missives teeming with endearing and oftimes risque phrases have been blackmailed after the men were released.

The correspondence usually commences in a formal manner after the name and number of the convict has been selected from a list supplied by the league at Washington.

PHOTOGRAPHS FOLLOW.

An exchange of photographs usually follows and soon they are writing to each other like school day sweethearts. The letters pour out words of consolation for the "poor boy there all alone," and contain sentiment which postal authorities do not recognize as mailable matter.

One woman in Hartford, Ct., who signs herself "Aunt Rosalyn" to evade prison censorship, says: "My Dearest Boy: I just oiled this machine and put in a new ribbon, so will try it out on you. I was dreaming this afternoon, and it was not about war either, but about some one who wants to go. ## CHINESE PRESIDENT MUST OBEY DICTUM.

[BY PACIFIC CABLE AND A. P.]

SHANGHAI, June 6.—Nieh Shih Chun, military governor of Anhwei, in an interview in the China Press at Pangpu on Tuesday, declared that President Li Yuan Hung must dismiss Parliament forthwith, or he would have to go. If the President yields, declared Nieh Shih Chun, he will be allowed to retain his office; otherwise Hsu Shih Chang, former Secretary of State, will be made President.

Nieh Shih Chun disclaimed any intention of restoring the monarchy but gave warning that if Gen. Chang Haun, the former military governor of Anhwei, goes to Peking he will not make peace but will go for the purpose of overthrowing the President and restoring the Manchu dynasty.

Nieh Shih Chun says that after the new Parliament is elected war will be declared on Germany.

AMERICAN AIRMEN WIN MANY HONORS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, June 6, 2:15 p.m.—A summary of the exploits of the second half of May, of the La Follette aerial squadron, composed principally of Americans, shows that it engaged in twenty-five patrols. Fifteen battles resulted. Corporal Kenneth Marr (San Francisco) was engaged in two battles.

The summary mentions the decoration of Adjt. Lufbery with the military medal by the King of England, as announced recently in London, and cites the meritorious conduct of this aviator and also of Sergt. Havilland, Sergt. Charles Johnson (St. Louis) and Lieut. William Thaw (Pittsburgh.)

GERMAN DESTROYER LOSS ADMITTED.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BERLIN, June 6 (via London, 11:35 a.m.)—The loss of the German destroyer S-20 is admitted in an official statement issued by the War Office in regard to the attack on Ostend by British ships. The statement follows:

"Enemy monitors shelled Ostend on the morning of the 5th, killing and wounding a great number of Belgian inhabitants and causing some material damage to houses. Strongly superior reconnoitering forces, attached to the advancing monitors, encountered two of our torpedo boats which were on guard. After fierce fighting the S-20 was sunk, firing to the last moment. A portion of the crew was rescued.

"The enemy forces received several hits and retired before the fire of our coast batteries."

ENGLAND IS LAVISH HOST TO MEDICOS.

MUCH ENTERTAINMENT FOR DOCTORS AND NURSES.

Everywhere British Welcome First American Units with Hospitality and Shower Good Times on Uncle Sam's Advance Guard as Compliment to Their Aid.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, June 6, 6 p.m. — The American doctors and nurses comprising the units from Chicago, Philadelphia and St. Louis are being entertained here on a lavish scale this week. Nearly every hour of their time is being demanded by their English, Canadian and American hosts, who have arranged a round of receptions, dinners, teas, theater parties and sight-seeing trips.

One of the star attractions for the visitors was a baseball game on the estate of Waldorf Astor, M.P., at which the American doctors suffered defeat at the hands of the more skilful Canadian surgeons attached to the Canadian contingents. The game ended at the close of the sixth inning, when the Canadians had piled up fourteen runs.

The American nurses are being showered with free tickets to the theaters and it is not unusual for a theater manager to appear on the stage between acts and compliment the nurses upon their presence on this side of the water, upon which the audience in several instances had risen and cheered the Americans.

JAILED ANTI-DRAFTER NOW WOULD REGISTER.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, June 6.—What little opposition to the draft registration has developed here received a setback today when Charles Francis Phillips, one of the most ardent of the anti-conscriptionists, pleaded guilty to a charge of failing to register yesterday and announced his willingness to comply with the law.

Phillips, a former Columbia University student, appeared before Federal Judge Mayer and declared that his failure to register was not due to a cowardly effort to evade the law, but in the interest of peace. He said he would reserve the right to question the constitutionality of the selective draft law.

The court announced that sentence would be deferred until after next Monday, when Phillips will be tried on a previous charge of conspiring with two Columbia students to distribute anti-conscription printed matter.

The contention of pacifists and slackers that the draft law was unconstitutional was declared to be "perfectly absurb" by Judge Mayer late today.

GERMANY MAY HELP US PAY WAR BILLS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Millions of dollars in dividends and debts due to Germans from American citizens may be invested in Liberty Loan bonds under the trading with the enemy act now pending in Congress. Germany thus will help America pay for the war.

A custodian of enemy property to be named with passage of the trading with the enemy act would, under this plan, take over all enemy alien property, investing funds and putting real property into the hands of trust companies for operation.

Liberty bonds are considered a safe investment for the German funds, and at the same time the money will be made to work for this country.

DUTCH LINER SAILS WITH BIG SALOON LIST.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

AMSTERDAM, June 5, Tuesday (via London, June 6, 12:35 p.m.)—The Holland-American line steamer Ryndam will sail tonight for New York by way of Halifax, with about 130 saloon passengers, 200 second-class passengers and more than 200 in the steerage. Barely a dozen Americans have taken passage.

The majority of the passengers are Dutch civil servants, military officers or planters bound for the East Indies by way of San Francisco.

OIL COMPANY BUYS BONDS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PORT ARTHUR (Tex.) June 6.—The Gulf Oil Corporation, of which the Gulf Refining Company of Port Arthur is the principal subsidiary company, has purchased $1,100,000 worth of Liberty Loan bonds, it was announced here today.

WAR TAX BILL AGAIN DELAYED

Senate Discussion Postponed Until Next Week.

Levy upon Publishers may be Settled Today.

Theater Ticket Scalpers are Hit by Committee.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Consideration of the redrafted war tax bill will not begin in the Senate until next week. After nearly two weeks spent in revising the House bill downward, the Senate Finance Committee today abandoned its plan to have the measure ready Friday. Instead, Chairman Simmons said the committee hopes to complete its revision Saturday. Printing and preparation of the report will take several days.

Decisions on important taxation questions still pending were deferred today, details and minor tax rates alone occupying the day's sessions. Rates on incomes and excess profits are to be left to the last. Any revenue needed to make a total levy of $1,500,000,000 probably will be secured by increasing the income or excess profits taxes.

PUBLISHERS' TAX.

As to the tax upon publishers, which may be settled at tomorrow's session, committee sentiment apparently favors adhering to the tentative decision for a 2 per cent. advertising levy and against increasing postage rates.

Among minor questions agreed upon today was a tax aimed at theater ticket scalpers, imposing a 50 per cent. tax upon the profits on tickets to theaters and other amusements and at race stands or hotels, exemptions of bona fide Chautauquas and Lyceums from the amusement admission taxes when operated by local concerns was agreed to. The committee in addition amended the exemption from admission taxes provided for agricultural fairs to include all receipts.

SOME EXEMPTIONS.

Decisions today included: Exemption of all musical instruments from taxation.

Adoption of house rates of 5 per cent. upon manufacturers' gross sales of perfumes and cosmetics and also on proprietary medicines.

A new manufacturers' tax upon photographic instruments ranging from 25 cents each on cameras selling for less than $5, to $1.50 on those selling for more than $20.

A substitute tax of one-eighth per cent. on the retail price of athletic goods.

A substitute graduated tax based upon length and tons upon yachts, sailing and motor-boats, except those used exclusively for business purposes or national defense or built upon Treasury Department specifications and capable of conversion for Federal purposes. This tax was fixed at $5 for motor-boats under five tons, 50 cents a foot on vessels of five tons and under fifty feet in length up to $1 a foot on vessels over 100 feet in length.

TOYS NOT INCLUDED.

The substitute tax on athletic goods will not apply to children's games and toys.

Detailed rates upon cameras follows: Costing less than $5, 25 cents; less than $10, 50 cents; less than $15, 75 cents; less than $20, $1, and over $20, $1.50.

SOCIALISTS VISIT KRONSTADT REBELS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PETROGRAD, June 6 (via London, 11:22 a.m.)—An official announcement made prior to the departure of the Socialist ministers for Kronstadt reads:

"The provisional government, recognizing that the present condition of affairs in Kronstadt is both menacing and intolerable, has requested the Socialist Ministers Tseretelli and Skobeleff to visit the fortress city with the object of clearing up its attitude toward the Central powers. They are charged with investigating the defense of the fortress, the character of the local administration of justice, the conditions under which prisoners are detained and to make a full and detailed report of their investigation to the government, in order that necessary measures may immediately be taken to deal with the trouble."

FIVE PERSONS KILLED IN KENTUCKY STORM.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LUXEMBURG REFUGEES APPEAL TO PRESIDENT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Refugees from the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg now in exile in Paris have petitioned President Wilson to direct American attention to the cause of their country, which, in a statement made public by the State Department today, is shown to have been invaded by Germany in spite of her treaty agreements and enslaved to Prussian rule, much as Belgium has been. The petition was handed to Ambassador Sharpe in Paris recently.

CUBAN PRESIDENT FAVORS THE DRAFT.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

HAVANA, June 6.—President Menocal today sent a message to Congress recommending the passage of a law making military service obligatory on all male citizens on the basis of the selective system as instituted in the United States.

As a preliminary the President asks authority to call for a registration of all citizens between the ages of 21 and 30 and to put under arms immediately the necessary number of conscripted men for the national defense and the security of the state.

The message was read in the House late this afternoon and then referred to the Committee on Naval and Military Affairs.

PASSENGER TRAIN SERVICE IN DOUBT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, June 6.—Executive officers of the railroads west of Chicago, who have been in session to consider elimination of passenger train service as an economic war measure, adjourned today until June 18. According to one of the representatives, the problem presented such intricacies that it was decided more time would be required to solve it.

It was said the railway men were divided on the question of whether it would be wise to take off trains until emergency required engines and equipment for freight service.

TROOPS TO HANDLE MONTANA STRIKE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

HELENA (Mont.) June 6.—Troops have been stationed in Whitefish by the Western Department of the army, according to word received here, to handle a railroad construction strike situation.

Gov. Stewart was appealed to by Great Northern Railroad officials, who represented that a big programme of construction work was under way there and that its speedy completion is necessary to handle traffic effectively. The men at work struck. The Great Northern brought in new men, but the strikers refused to permit them to go to work.

SEVEN ARE KILLED IN MISSOURI TORNADO.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SPRINGFIELD (Mo.) June 6.—Seven persons were killed and much damage done in Wright county last night, when a tornado swooped down between Mountain Grove and Norwood. All wires are down and only meager reports have come from the stricken district.

"CENT-A-DAY PLAN" FOR LOAN BONDS.

DEATH SPREAD BY TORNADOES.

Missouri and Kansas Visited Thrice in Two Weeks.

Five Killed at Centralia, in Wrecked Houses.

Latest Estimate of Damage Reaches Two Millions.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) June 6.—For the third time within two weeks tornadoes last night and early today spread death and destruction through rural districts of Missouri and Kansas. Reports from the stricken districts tonight showed fifteen to have been killed in Missouri and nine in Kansas. The number of injured has reached approximately 150 and estimates of the property damage place it anywhere from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000.

The greatest loss of life apparently was in Boone county, Missouri, where eleven persons perished. In Carroll, Charlton and Ray counties four are dead. In Kansas the deaths totalled eight in the country southeast and west of Topeka and one was killed at Savonburg, near Iola, where the tornado appeared early today.

The greatest loss of life at any single point was at Centralia, Mo. Five died in the destruction of about fifty houses within the city and two were killed near by. More than a score were injured. Reports early tonight indicated that many persons were injured in near-by towns and the surrounding country.

OMAHA STORM CENTER.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

OMAHA (Neb.) June 6.—A cloudburst and wind storm did considerable damage in the southwestern suburbs of Omaha last night. Union Pacific, Burlington and Northwestern tracks were badly damaged and traffic delayed. A portion of the town of Papillion, Neb., was reported inundated and some families forced to leave their homes, though no loss of life is known.

The lower portions of Council Bluffs, Iowa, suffered from the rising waters.

DAMAGE IN KANSAS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

TOPEKA (Kan.) June 6.—Tornadoes throughout Kansas yesterday killed at least eight persons, injured between forty and fifty and caused property damage estimated in excess of $1,000,000. The storms struck Kansas in three distinct areas—one through Wabaunsee, Shawnee and Jefferson counties, killing four; the second in the southwest corner of Douglas county, killing three, and the third in Neosho county, killing one. National Guardsmen have been called out to patrol the stricken regions.

TOTS RE-ENACT CRIME IN COURT

Show How They Slew Father with a Shotgun.

Girl Points Weapon, Brother Pulls the Trigger.

Mother Died Last January, Judge is Informed.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DURANT (Okla.) June 6.—The four motherless and now fatherless children of R. L. Wilkerson, a farmer, today told Judge Lewis Pauldin, in County Court, how they planned and executed the murder of their father last Thursday night as he lay asleep in the Wilkerson farm home near Bennington. At the request of the court two of the children reenacted the tragedy in dramatic fashion. All have been sent to the State School for Delinquency.

Bessie, aged 12, the oldest of the four, and Joe, aged 13, gave the court a comprehensive account of the incident. The two younger children, Ruby, 10, and Otto, 8, testified they killed their father at the older children's bidding. Each testified that Wilkerson frequently swore at them, but that they received whippings not more frequently than other children of their acquaintance.

Handed a double-barreled shotgun, with a request to show the court how their father met his death, Ruby pointed the gun at a hat hung on a near-by chair, while little Otto, barefooted and chewing gum, calmly pulled the trigger. Three times the little ones testified they had gone to their father's room to kill him, only to scurry back to the kitchen from fright. Finally, with the encouragement of the older brother, the children say, they had nerved themselves sufficiently to commit the crime.

Mrs. Wilkerson died last January. An older sister, who then became their foster-mother, since has married, leaving the children to care for themselves.

REVISED LITANY ADOPTED FOR WAR.

COLORADO EPISCOPAL DIOCESE COMPILES NEW FORM.

Secretary Says Supplements are Necessary to Prepare Christian Mind—Aviator and Submarine are Remembered in Significant Lines of the Ritual.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

DENVER, June 6.—A revised litany in the form of a supplication and an intercession to Almighty God and two prayers written especially for the duration of the war were adopted today by the Episcopal diocese of this State. Dr. James McLaughlin, secretary of the diocese council of Colorado, said tonight that the present ritual needed these supplements to prepare the Christian mind for the war.

Important extracts taken from the supplication with reference to the war are:

"That it may please Thee to give power from on high to the chaplains, doctors, nurses and all who care for the sick, the wounded and the dying, whether on the field of battle or in the hospital, that they may minister comfort and healing for both body and soul."

With reference to our enemies the supplication reads:

"That it may please Thee to forgive our enemies, and turn their hearts."

But it also says:

"From our enemies defend us, O Christ. Graciously look down upon our afflictions. Grant to us and to our allies, if it be Thy will, victory and success."

AVIATOR AND U-BOAT MEN.

The aviator and submarine operators are also remembered in these lines:

"Look, in Thy mercy, we beseech Thee O Lord, on those who are called to tasks of special peril in the air and beneath the sea."

The prayers adopted read:

"Oh, Eternal Pity, receive the souls of Thy servants unto Thyself that where Thy mercy reigneth there they may ever dwell. May they pass from this restlessness and strife unto Thy eternal rest; and when they are called upon to give an account of themselves and of their works, do Thou, O God, we pray Thee, remember that which others owe to them with that which they may owe, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, amen."

Pleading for world peace, the other prayer reads:

"O Thou King immortal, invisible, the only wise God, our Savior, hasten the coming of Thy kingdom upon earth and draw the whole world of mankind into willing obedience to Thy blessed reign. Overcome all the enemies of Christ and bring low every power that is exalted against Him. Cast out all evil things that cause wars and fighting among us. Establish every work that is founded on truth and equity, and fulfill all the good desires of Thy people. "Manifest Thy will, Almighty Father in the brotherhood of man and bring in universal peace, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen."

ICE MINT

Rub a little soothing, cooling Ice Mint on those poor, tired, swollen, burning feet. Ah, how cool, easy and comfortable it makes them feel. Instantly corns and painful callouses stop hurting and you will want to dance for joy. No foolishness. Ice Mint will shrivel up any corn whether hard, soft or between the toes so that it can be lifted out easily with the fingers. There is no pain and not one bit of soreness when applying Ice Mint or afterwards and it doesn't even irritate the surrounding skin. Try it. Just ask in any drug store for a small jar of Ice Mint and end your foot troubles for good. It costs little and acts so quickly and gently it seems like magic. You'll say so yourself.

TEN SHOTS AT THIEF; NO HIT.

Burglar then Opens Fire at Intended Victim and Likewise Misses.

Ten bullets, fired from an automatic revolver, were required late last night to drive a burglar from the apartments of Wilbur McDonald, No. 1532 Orange street.

Mr. McDonald returned to his room and, discovering the burglar leaving via a window, opened fire. The stranger leaped through the window to the ground and escaped by darting across back yards and hurdling over fences with McDonald pursuing.

As the robber disappeared over the last fence, he paused long enough to empty his revolver at Mr. McDonald. Neither of the marksmen made a hit.

PETROLEUM CUTS GENEROUS MELON.

GENERAL DECLARES TEN PER CENT. DIVIDEND.

Stock Crosses Par and Sells up to Hundred and Two Before Close of Session in Northern Exchange — Over Two Millions Earned in Ten Months.

The General Petroleum Corporation, at its annual meeting in San Francisco yesterday, declared a dividend of 10 per cent. on the common stock, payable quarterly, the first annual payment to be made next October 1. Simultaneously with that announcement the shares crossed par on the San Francisco Stock and Bond Exchange and sold up to $102 before the close of the session.

Following the official statement last week that the stock would be placed on a dividend-paying basis it rose from around $82 to $93.50 Monday afternoon. Yesterday morning, in a general anticipation that the rate would be 8 per cent., it opened at $97, and on a number of transactions at the afternoon session when the 10 per cent. announcement was made it touched the high point, receding fractionally on realization sales at the close.

Capt. John Barneson, president and leading spirit of the organization, read a brief report at the meeting showing that the earnings for April not included in the last report still continue to increase. His report in part was as follows:

"The net combined earnings of April were, after deducting fixed charges, interest and depreciation, $287,529.87, making a total for the ten months of $2,168,780.87. The company's production has been materially increased by the purchase of the Lost Hills Development property, and is now averaging at the rate of 5,000,000 barrels per annum. During the ten months past the company's acreage has been well and substantially increased by acquisition of 1595 acres of patented lands owned in fee and 1683 acres held under lease."

The bonds outstanding of the General Petroleum Corporation were reduced $500,000, principally by the sale of the S. S. Hills.

Associated Oil yesterday declared the regular quarterly dividend of $1.25.

FIX THE BLAME FOR BUTTE RIOTS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BUTTE (Mont.) June 6.—Responsibility for the attempted anti-war demonstration last night which resulted in sixty or more arrests, the breaking up of an anti-draft parade and a call for National Guardsmen to disperse the crowds and clear the streets in the business section of Butte is being definitely determined by United States District Attorney B. K. Wheeler in conference with city and county officials. Every detail of the attempted demonstration and each individual's part in it are being sifted to the bottom. Where a conspiracy to induce others not to register is shown the government will prosecute.

Troops were withdrawn from the streets early today and all signs of disorders have vanished.

UNIONS MEET A WATERLOO.

Anti-picketing Measure is Passed in Oregon.

Voters are Most Emphatic to Regulate Jitneys.

Franchises for Car Company Given a Majority.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PORTLAND (Or.) June 6. — Organized labor met its Waterloo in Oregon on Tuesday as the final returns of the city and State election come in from all sections, showing conclusively that the people are tired of being "led to the slaughter," as it were, by men posing as Republicans to get votes, and yet at the same time make applications to become members of the Socialist party, or by measures which would give organized labor control of the city of Portland, yet so reading as to puzzle the voter when he goes to the polls.

One of the bitterest pills which organized labor was made to swallow was the passage of the anti-picketing bill, or the conspiracy measure, as it was otherwise known.

It carried with the slight margin of 278 votes out of 47,476 ballots cast.

Other important city measures passed by the voters include the $3,000,000 issue of grain elevator bonds, the jitney bond measure, the Marquam Gulch playground measure.

JITNEYS LOSE.

Measures lost include the two-platoon system, the free-streets-for-jitneys measure, the telephone interchange measure, the $75,000 garbage collection bond measure and the two anti-commission charter amendments.

The voters expressed themselves most emphatically on the jitney question and their verdict was for jitney regulation.

The free-streets-for-jitneys measure was buried in negative votes, while the measure requiring a $2500 bond of all jitneys to protect their passengers in case of accident was carried heavily. The jitney men had organized labor behind them.

On the other hand, the four measures granting franchises to the Portland Trackless Car Company, which applied to the City Council for franchises to operate jitneys under regulation, were carried by large votes.

By their votes on these questions the voters demonstrated beyond question that they discriminated very nicely between the issues involved. Fears expressed before the election that the jitney franchise measure would go to smash along with the free-streets measure, because the people would not differentiate between them, proved entirely groundless.

BOND MAJORITY.

The heavy affirmative majority by which the $3,000,000 bond issue for building grain elevators in Portland and the $6,000,000 road bonds measure carried, while another and much smaller bond measure, providing for $75,000 in bonds for free garbage collection, was swamped, showed again the same careful discrimination.

Furthermore, the people showed that they are prefectly willing to go directly into their pocketbooks and increase the tax levy themselves when an increased tax is necessary for a measure they believe to be meritorious.

The 4-mill tax levy for parks and playground in Marquam Gulch was passed by a big majority.

The vote for the $6,000,000 road bonds issue was particularly heavy in Portland and Multnomah county. Including the county vote, with returns complete from 370 precincts, the majority for the bonds is 18,453. Organized labor and the State Grange were opposed to the road bonds.

LOSE THE MAYORALTY.

And last, but far from least, organized labor lost the Mayoralty by approximately 1500 votes, George L. Baker winning over William H. Daly, registered as a Republican, and yet declared to be a member of the Socialist party, who had a strong labor machine behind him. Tonight organized labor is so bitter of the way things went for them this year that already members are talking of shaking the dust of Portland and Oregon from their feet, selling what property they own and decamping or seeking other pastures.

The rear view of Barney's racer.

This is the view with which Barney's rivals will become familiar in the Chicago race, according to Harry Miller, the builder of the car. It has a specially designed Miller motor which has tested better than 132 h.p. and has the top to save Oldfield and his mechanician from injury. Both Miller and Oldfield believe that the car, which left for Chicago yesterday, will make close to 150 miles per hour on a straightaway.

KERVARAS MEETS ITO; SHAKE-UP AMONG PREPS.

BY WILLIAM M. HENRY.

GUS KERVARAS was a very pleased young man last night. The match between the demon Greek and Prof. Ito, the Japanese judo and jiu-jutsu expert, was signed up yesterday and will be held in the Shrine Auditorium June 30.

Gus thinks this may be his last wrestling match, anyhow, and does not care what happens to him. He registered Tuesday although he had to threaten to lick the registration clerk before he was allowed to do so. Kervaras is only 28 years old, but would easily pass for 35 and had some difficulty convincing the clerk that he meant business.

Previous to the big bout Gus will work for a week or so with Constantine Romanoff and a couple of Japanese experts. He is hard at work getting in condition at the Los Angeles Athletic Club now. Manager Tim McGrath has hopes of arranging a thirty-minute catch-as-catch-can bout between Constantine Romanoff and Bull Montana, to stage on the same evening.

There is liable to be a big shake-up in the city and county high school athletic leagues. A committee representing the two divisions met yesterday afternoon and will submit to the county league officials a number of rather startling recommendations.

It is proposed to take Jefferson High into the city league in all branches of sport, to put San Pedro High in the bay section of the county league, to put Franklin in the central section of the county league and San Fernando in the central section for football only.

It is then proposed that Long Beach, Pasadena and Whittier high schools be put in the city league in all branches of sport except football. It is planned to have these three schools compete with Santa Ana as of yore on the gridiron, but in all other sports become regular members of the city family.

There were a lot of surprised young persons in this city yesterday morning, when news of the Zbyszko-Strangler Lewis wrestling match finally filtered over the wires from San Francisco. To say that a Zbyszko victory was unexpected is putting it mildly.

It seems that after 1 hour 12 minutes of wrestling Zbyszko had hold of the ropes and Lewis had him around the waist. The referee told the Pole to let go of the ropes and, as he did so, Zbyszko gave a mighty heave backwards landing on top of Lewis and stunning him for the only fall of the evening.

Gus Kervaras wrestled Zbyszko in a one-hour match some two years ago, and says that the Pole has no liceñse to lick Lewis, according to his notions. Gus says that the Pole is marvelously strong, but dismisses him with a wave of the hand and a significant finger pointed toward the head.

Barney Oldfield may not be able to beat anybody with his "Goldbug" near-limousine racing car, but he is certainly going to have the folks sitting up and looking at him when he gets out and buzzes over the fast Chicago Speedway course in his inclosed racing creation.

The chances are that the wagon will be in fine shape for him despite the seeming lateness of the hour. While it is true that the body of the car has only just been completed, the motor was almost finished in time for the Vanderbilt and Grand Prize races at Santa Monica several months ago and it has had lots of thorough testing on the block at the Miller plant. We are anxious to see how the durned thing works.

MUST PROTECT YOUNG BUYERS.

Seller of Impure Candy Sent to County Jail.

Hundreds of Children Were Man's Customers.

Evidence of Food Inspector Shows Bad Conditions.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, June 7.—Taking the view that school children should be protected from impure candy Judge Robert McDonald yesterday sentenced L. M. McKissick to the County Jail for sixty days and fined him $25 on the charge of violating the State pure food laws. The defendant owns a confectionery stand at No. 711 Center street in front of the McKinley School. Hundreds of school children have bought candy from him.

C. F. Huddleson, a food inspector, testified that he had found chocolate candy in McKissick's stand in a bad condition. He said there were ants and flies in McKissick's syrup. The inspector declared that he found the stand and the stock in it decidedly unsatisfactory.

"We must protect the children from bad candy," Judge McDonald declared. "The fact that children were the ones to suffer from this man's carelessness makes the charges against him all the more serious."

OFFICIAL CANVASS.

The official canvass of the registration returns yesterday by the Military Draft Registration Committee showed that 2554 men registered, of which number 1473 claimed exemption. The showing was slightly disappointing to Edwin F. Hahn, chairman of the committee, who had estimated the number at 3000 the previous evening.

Counting out the aliens, and those claiming exemption, there are left only 1154 Pasadenans for military service. The total number of aliens registered was 310. Only sixteen Germans, or enemy aliens, were registered in the city. Forty-nine negroes registered.

John Willis Baer, vice-president of the Union National Bank, is optimistic about Pasadena, doing its full share in subscribing for the Liberty bonds. He reports that the Union National and the Union Trust and Savings banks have subscribed for $300,000 of the bonds for themselves and their customers. This figure does not include $300,000 of the Liberty short-term certificates. The total for the Union banks in short-term certificates and bonds yesterday was $500,000. These figures do not include any of the orders for bonds for the Union Bank which were secured in the house to house canvass. Those will come in to the bank today.

WILD AND WOOLLY NIGHT AT BRAWLEY.

BRAWLEY, June 6.—Deputy Sheriffs Kemp and Adkinson, in pursuit of horse thieves here tonight, captured two men, recovered the horses and took into custody two men who were fighting a pistol duel, all in five minutes, in the same block in Sonoratown. The suspected horse thieves are Felice Ramires and Alejondra Ruiz, the duellists, William Hall and Orus Clark. The latter has a bullet in his right arm, which a physician is trying to extract. The ulna bone of that member is shattered. The deputies traced the stolen horse and buggy to the Ramires home, where they found it. Ramires tried vainly to escape. Ruiz was found hitching another horse to the stolen buggy. Just as they loaded the men into their auto, shots rang out in the back yard, and, after Clark fell at the fifth shot, they had two more prisoners. Clark and Hall duelled over a woman.

AVIATORS RESCUE WOMAN AT BEACH.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LONG BEACH, June 6.—Mrs. Elizabeth Chase, an Idaho tourist stopping at the Eldon B. apartment-house on East First street, narrowly escaped drowning while trying to learn to swim in the surf today at the foot of Atlantic avenue. Aviator Earl Daugherty and Ernest White, who were working on Daugherty's airplane on the beach, noticed the woman's predicament and, launching the city's Linden-avenue life boat, rowed quickly to the rescue.

NEEDS CAPITAL TO MAKE IMPROVEMENTS.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PORTERVILLE, June 6.—Officials of the Central California Gas Company admit that their service in Porterville is bad. This admission is made officially in an answer filed with the State Railroad Commission to a complaint made by Porterville consumers, copies of the answer having been transmitted to the local protestants.

The answer further declares that the present equipment of the company is burdened beyond the point of efficiency and declares relief can be secured only if the State Railroad Commission will grant a pending petition in which the corporation asks for additional funds for the construction of a natural gas line from the oil fields.

In view of the admission of fact in the original complaint, it is understood no formal hearing on the part of the commission is to be held here.

NEW STUDIO STARTED.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

CULVER CITY, June 6.—Work was begun yesterday on the buildings for the Continental Photoplays studio, and about $20,000 will be expended. The company will occupy about five acres fronting on Washington boulevard and extending back to the Redondo car line tracks.

FAIL TO OBTAIN PEOPLE'S CONSENT.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PORTERVILLE, June 6.—Without any formal action on the part of the electorate, the City Council by resolution has placed this city, to all practical purposes, under the commission form of government. Replacing the former committees, commissioners have been placed in charge of the following departments: streets, sidewalks and parks; health and public safety; fire and water, finance.

Hereafter, all matters in these classifications will be administered by the commissioners, who will merely apply to the Council as a whole for ratification of their acts.

THREE COUNTIES TO SHARE THE COST.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SAN LUIS OBISPO, June 6.—That two-thirds of the State Highway Commission will be present at the highway meeting to be held here June 13 was indicated in a letter received yesterday by the Chamber of Commerce from Commissioner C. F. Stern.

The State Highway Commission will appropriate from the bond issue fund, which becomes available after July 1, half of the expense of building the lateral. San Luis Obispo, Kern and Kings counties will be expected to contribute the other half. Plans will be gone over for the raising of the money by the three counties.

Remarkable.

MACHINE LODGES IN ORANGE TREE.

EXTRAORDINARY AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT REPORTED.

Angelenos Hurrying to Wedding are Delayed When Their Big Car is Destroyed Near Covina. Rabbit Hunter Blows Away Lower Half of His Face.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

COVINA, June 6.—About $4000 invested in a Stevens-Duryea automobile went into the scrap heap in a few seconds this afternoon on the San Bernardino road, when the car, owned by Lee Phillips, a capitalist of Los Angeles, struck the auto of George Rebhan, a rancher, as the latter was emerging from his yard.

Mrs. Phillips and daughter and two men were in the car at the time, but although the machine turned completely over once, and lodged half way up a big orange tree, the occupants were not seriously injured. Mr. Phillips is third vice-president of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, and on being apprised of the accident, drove to the scene in another car. The party had been having a picnic in the country, and was hurrying to keep a wedding appointment. Rebhan's car was not badly damaged.

HUNTER KILLED.

Albert Sturgill, brother of Marion Sturgill of this valley, died in the County Hospital at noon as the result of receiving a charge of shot from a gun, while hunting rabbits in an orchard. The gun exploded while Sturgill was standing with the weapon resting in front of him. The whole lower half of his face was torn away. He was conscious for some hours, but died shortly after reaching the hospital. For some months he had been employed on the ranch of C. E. Paige.

PASTURE CAPACITY IS OVERSTOCKED.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SAN LUIS OBISPO, June 6.—Pasture carrying capacity over the county is about 67 per cent. normal and is generally overstocked, according to the monthly report of Horticultural Commissioner S. V. Christierson, which was filed with the Board of Supervisors yesterday.

The report states that pasture is drying up rapidly. Apples are being attacked in some sections by powdery mildew. This is evidenced by a powdery whitening of leaves and tips of twigs, according to the report. Christierson suggests spraying with lime-sulphur, one to fifty parts, now, or winter strength, which is one to nine parts, next spring.

MANY ENTER FOR VENICE PARADE.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PORTERVILLE HALTS RAILROAD WORK.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PORTERVILLE, June 6.—Acting under instruction of the Council, the police today halted work on the construction by Southern Pacific employees of new freight tracks on the ground that portions of the track had been constructed on streets and alleys lying between Orange and Locust streets.

Mayor Konda stated the city officials have no desire to halt legitimate work and that if a petition for a permit is presented in proper form and the work confined within the railroad property it will be granted without delay.

COAL DEALERS ARE WINNERS

Freight Rates Ruling Saves Them Thousands.

Blanket Figure Made for All Southern California.

San Bernardino Informed of Commission's Ruling.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN BERNARDINO, June 6.—Coal dealers of Southern California have won an important decision from the Interstate Commerce Commission which will save them several hundred thousand dollars a year in freight rates. According to advice received by attorneys here for the coal dealers, the Interstate Commerce Commission has ruled that the railroads shall charge a blanket rate of $5.15 per ton for coal hauled from the mines at Gallup, N. M. Two years ago the coal interests of the interior started the fight against discriminatory rates when there was a differences of $1 a ton on the charge from Gallup to San Bernardino and interior points and to Los Angeles. The rate then was $6.15 a ton to this city. Then the railroads raised the Los Angeles rate to $5.65 and lowered the San Bernardino and interior rates to the same figure. The ruling of the Interstate Commerce Commission today is that the rate shall be $5.15 for all of Southern California.

VICTOR VALLEY PETITION.

Petitioners asking for the formation of a new irrigation district on the west side of the Mojave River in Victor Valley today could not show that their petition was sufficient and the Board of Supervisors gave them until Friday for a final hearing on the sufficiency of the petition.

FOR ANNEXATION.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA MONICA, June 6.—Announcement was made today that the petition for an election to annex this city to Los Angeles now has 1300 names on it, out of 1805 necessary. The annexationists believe they will have at least 2000 names inside of a week. They intend to urge an early election.

PERSONAL—Business.

PERSONAL—AN HONEST PROPOSITION. If you are DOUBTFUL or SKEPTICAL as to what a genuine PSYCHIC-PALMIST can do, go today, bring this statement and MR. IRA KEAN, M.P., will give you a thorough test of his PSYCHIC knowledge absolutely free of charge. It is for your benefit and suggestions concerning your personal affairs of life. Scientific palmistry will reveal to you your weak points, strong characteristics, future possibilities, what you are best fitted for in life, etc. Do you know that 95 per cent. of the successful men and women of today in the affairs of life, such as business, love, marriage, etc., are guided psychically either through the development of their own intuitive forces or through the aid of a Professional Psychic? The day of Psychic-Phenomena, as a fad, fiction and experiment has passed. The reliable psychic-palmist of today is consulted on the material affairs and obstacles of life with the same degree of faith and confidence that you consult a lawyer, physician, doctor, broker or banker. Psychology as a science today is to the human being what the Government Weather Bureau is to the farmer, and IRA KEAN is to Psychology what Edison is to Electricity. Forget what you are or were told at other times, and come to see KEAN. This is your hour; make the most of it. Today is your worst enemy. When you lose your time it is forever. You can't make it back. Time is power. Knowledge crowns the door that impenetrable would forever close. Life is not what we make it; some people would make you believe, so do not look busy because the day seems dull and the duties of life are irksome. Rise above your conditions. Improve your conditions, may be, KEAN can and will aid you. Know the truth. Know is true what to do and how to do it. KEAN points the way. KEAN'S best endorsement: is an interview with KEAN. KEAN'S fees for readings are within the reach of all. KEAN can only be consulted at his residence, 2402 South Grand ave., Los Angeles. Hours, 10 to 8, daily and Sunday.

NORMAL RAILROAD SERVICE.

Only Trains that are Unnecessary are to be Discontinued.

Discussion has arisen regarding the possibility of an abridgement of service on the part of western railroads, following advice by the Railroad Operating Committee, which is working under the direction of the National Committee of Defense.

A committee consisting of the traffic and operating heads of the various western railroads has been making a thorough discussion of these matters, and F. A. Wann, general traffic manager of the Salt Lake Route, telegraphed the following from Salt Lake City yesterday as the direct action of this committee of western railroads:

"It is our belief that no railway official has any serious idea of attempting to go further than to secure the discontinuance of trains which are unnecessary, and we are sure there is no thought of restricting the service so as to abridge possibilities of free movement of passengers."

CORPORATION LOSES.

The Southern Pacific, in Judge Houser's court yesterday, lost the suit against the city of Los Angeles to recover assessments amounting to $22,163.66 for improvement work. This was a retrial, the corporation alleging that the assessment was illegal and therefore void. An appeal will be taken.

TO INVESTIGATE JAP DIPLOMACY.

New Commission Gets to Work in Imperial Palace.

Will Advise the Emperor on Affairs of State.

Embassy Denies Knowledge of Threat to Russia.

[BY PACIFIC CABLE AND A. P.]

TOKIO, June 6.—The new national commission for discussing of foreign policies of the empire was installed in the palace today under direction of Emperor Yoshihito, with the temporary title of Diplomatic Investigation Committee. The edict providing for the creation of the commission proclaims that its organization is due to the grave proportions of the international situation. Its object is to investigate international questions and give advice on the important affairs of state.

DENIAL BY EMBASSY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—The Japanese Embassy today denied knowledge of reported representation by Japan to the Russian government that Japan and Great Britain would be obliged to consider what measures to take in case Russia withdraws from the war.

It is known, however, that conditions in Russia are such as to have inspired some of the Allied powers to place themselves in a position to deal with developments adverse to their interests. This has been done without ill-feeling toward Russia, but out of prudential regard for the maintenance of what the Entente powers believe is their present military superiority.

Recent public utterances of prominent Japanese have indicated that the explanation of Japan's failure to dispatch troops to Europe might be found on this basis as Japan's splendidly-organized military force might be used in case of need to repair any defections in the fighting lines caused by an unexpected collapse of Russian resistance.

New and Wonderful Hair Removing Secret
(How to Get Rid of Roots and All)
The secret is out! Any woman bothered with superfluous hair can now rid herself of this trouble absolutely—not only the surface hairs, but the roots as well—by what is known as the "phelactine process." The new method does away with numerous and expensive visits to the electrolysis expert. Does away with depilatories or shaving at frequent intervals. Nothing like it ever known before. Get a stick of phelactine, follow the easy instructions, and if not entirely satisfied the druggist will refund your money.
You do the work in a few seconds, in your own home, without the least injury. The hair roots come out before your very eyes, leaving the skin soft, smooth, hairless. Phelactine is odorless, non-irritating, and so harmless you could eat it.

BIG DRIVE TO ROUND UP THE SLACKERS WILL START TODAY.

Number of Young Men who did not Register Already Arrested, and Names of Hundreds More in the Officers' Hands—Official Count Started.

SIMULTANEOUSLY with the completion of the official canvass of the draft registration rolls by the city and county registration boards, a big drive to round up the slackers who did not register is due to start this morning. Two such are already under arrest in this city, and several others in other Southern California cities. They are being turned over to the local Department of Justice as fast as taken into custody.

Secret reports received by Sheriff Cline yesterday indicated about 100 young men had failed to register. Deputy Sheriffs Fox and Nolan were assigned to investigate the reports. Wherever the rumors are substantiated the young men will be arrested.

The first young men to be arrested here as slackers are both negroes. George Anderson, 22, a bootblack, was taken into custody yesterday afternoon by Detectives King and Vernand. He said he would rather be in jail than in the army, and was accommodated. Last night Daniel Tracy, a colored chauffeur, was arrested at Twelfth and Central by Detectives Glenn and Stevens. He said he is only 19 years old, but the officers believe he is of conscription age.

IN OUTSIDE CITIES.

For refusing to register, Charles Decker, 22, son of City Trustee Henry C. Decker of Huntington Beach, was put in the Orange County Jail yesterday and his case placed in the hands of the Federal authorities of this city.

Previous to registration day Decker announced that he would not register because he did not consider conscription constitutional. Tuesday City Marshal Tinsley urged him to comply with the law. Yesterday, after a conference with Sheriff C. E. Jackson, Tinsley brought the young man to jail. Later two secret service men from Los Angeles interviewed him. He still refused to register.

The Long Beach police yesterday made their first arrest in the round-up of alleged slackers, when they took into custody James W. Wilson, who, when accosted by Detectives Winters and Denny, declared his age to be 19 years. He is said by the officers, however, to have given his age in his marriage license secured two years ago as 22.

The youth claims that he exaggerated his age because he was impatient to wed. He finally registered, however, giving his age as 21, and was released from jail.

Safety Commissioner James R. Williams issued an appeal to the citizens to report to him or Chief of Police C. C. Cole anyone under suspicion of being an evader.

Several alleged military slackers were given five hours' grace by Sheriff Nat Stewart of Santa Barbara county yesterday, and in fear of arrest they registered for the draft. The Council of Defense is now canvassing returns, which cannot be completed before tomorrow night, but already rumors many names as under suspicion as slackers and a sensation is hourly expected. In one instance the Sheriff is investigating a prominent millionaire who is declared not to have registered. One man, R. C. O'Connor of Oroville, taken from the park, was jailed as a slacker. The police say he admits he was headed for Mexico.

POLICE ORDERS.

Chief Butler yesterday issued the following orders to division commanders:

"Instruct all men in your commands to investigate all cases brought to their notice in which persons of military age are reported to have failed to register. If

TEUTON JAILED HERE AS ANTI-CONSCRIPTIONIST.

THE first local arrest for violation of the section of the President's proclamation covering the distribution of anti-conscription literature was made by Federal officers last night when they raided a secret amateur print shop in Pasadena. John A. Feller, the prisoner, was brought to this city by Federal Inspector Boden and lodged in the County Jail.

Feller is suspected of being a member of the anarchist ring in San Francisco which has been flooding the West with anti-draft literature. He was arrested while operating a hidden printing press in his room at No. 34 Center street, Pasadena. Inspector Boden, who, with Deputy Sheriff Nolan raided the place, confiscated all of Feller's correspondence and a large supply of birth-control literature.

The arrest was ordered by the Federal authorities in San Francisco. A telegram received from that city stated that Feller had taken part in the distribution of letters advising citizens to ignore the registration orders. Through clews unearthed by Federal authorities in the arrest of A. Balinski in San Francisco, the officers learned, they say, that Balinski had sent all of his anti-draft literature to Pasadena, to be sent through the mails by Feller.

Balinski, alias John Morgan, alias Jay Brown, a Russian, said by the San Francisco government authorities to be one of the foremost anarchists in the country, was arrested there Tuesday on a temporary charge of using the mails to defraud. It is said, however, that he will be prosecuted on a more serious charge. He is specifically alleged to have solicited funds to reprint and send out an anti-war-policy editorial in a San Francisco weekly which was not allowed the use of the mails to transmit the issue containing it. When arrested, Balinski was found in possession of letters from some well-known anarchists.

Inspector Boden says Feller has sent thousands of anti-draft letters through the mails. Feller is 34 years old, and a German-Swiss, who has taken out his first citizenship papers. In the County Jail last night he admitted that he had sent the unlawful printed matter through the mails, but he denied that he knew what the envelopes contained, as they were sent from San Francisco.

Feller has been employed by T. W. Jannoch, a nurseryman of No. 390 South Pasadena avenue, for the last year. He has lived at the Center-street address for the same length of time. His landlady, Mrs. Ella Shedd, does not know where he came from. She says he called himself a German, was quiet, received but little mail and few visitors. One young man, however, came often and regularly to see him. She added that she has often heard his press going in his room.

NATURE SMILES ON FAIR JUNE BRIDES.

TWO BRILLIANT WEDDINGS SOCIAL LODESTONES.

Smart Set Turns Out in Force to the Leonard-McGinnis and Banning-MacFarland Nuptials, Solemnized in Flower-decked Churches.

If yesterday's sunshine could have spoken, it would surely have said: "How lucky I am!" For it assisted materially in two of the loveliest weddings of the year, and of the most importance socially, that of Miss Eleanor Banning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hancock Banning, to John C. MacFarland, and that of Miss Clara Leonardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Leonardt, to Felix McGinnis. The Leonardt-McGinnis wedding was the first on the day's festive programme, and took place at St. Vincent's Church, amid an array of flowers that transformed the church into a bridal bower. The chancel was banked with palms, ferns and tall Easter lilies, while the aisles were lanes of blossoms. At the entrance of each pew was a large bouquet of multicolored flowers surrounding an Easter lily, which towered above the others. Ribbons of orchid colored tulle tied the bouquets, and streamers of the same gauzy material reached the full length of the aisles from chancel to altar. The high altar was banked with lilies, blue larkspur, and sweet peas, and blossoms of various tints filled in the space between the altar and the railing.

The ushers led the bridal procession, and they included Messrs. Frank Powell, Charles Bergin, Carlton Burke, Edward Maier, Maynard McFie and George Lichtenberger. Following, was the matron of honor, Mrs. Frank Powell, who was superbly gowned in orchid tulle over silver cloth, with a picture hat of the same delicate shade. Instead of a bouquet she carried a long wand wound with orchid satin and topped with a bouquet of orchids. The little flower girl, Laurann Lisk, who is the niece of Mrs. Edward Doheny, Jr., was a dainty little sprite in a baby blue silk frock, ruffled and tucked. She scattered rose petals before the bride, who came on the arm of her father. She was more than usually attractive in a white embroidered satin gown with overdrape of chiffon and a court train of silver cloth. The veil, which fell the full length of the train, was caught at the forehead with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white orchids, and lilies of the valley. The groom was attended by his brother, John McGinnis, as best man. The ceremony was performed by Father MacRoberts, and a quartette sang during the service. The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March and left to those of Mendelssohn's. The large church was completely filled with the friends of the two young people. About 125

TO PRESENT OUR CLAIMS FOR ARMY CANTONMENT.

Los Angeles Men Today will Set Forth to Board of Survey Special Advantages this Community Offers for Permanent Location of Military Camp—Transcontinental Railroad Lines a Big Factor.

IF LOS ANGELES business men are wide awake, this city can have the permanent army cantonment. It will be their endeavor today to convince the board of survey, appointed by Maj.-Gen. Hunter Liggett, that this is the right place and that the inducements offered the government are of the kind worth while.

All of this became known yesterday, when the War Department announced that the Linda Vista camp, near San Diego, is to be only a temporary one of canvas. Lack of transportation facilities for speedy movement of great bodies of troops is the real reason for not making the Linda Vista camp a permanent one.

In case of emergency, a single railroad line out of that territory could not be depended upon. That the War Department officials recognized this fact became apparent when the new board of survey was named. On this are Col. Joseph P. O'Neill, infantry; Col. William N. Kenly, field artillery; Lieut.-Col. Thomas H. Slavins, quartermaster's corps; Lieut.-Col. Charles Lynch, medical corps; Capt. Richard Park, engineer corps.

MANY GUARDSMEN COMING.

The bulk of the Western National Guardsmen are to be gathered at Linda Vista. They are to be given a strenuous and intensive training. This is to be over by the end of fall, or before the beginning of the winter rains. Every possible system is being used to rush work on the camp.

Yesterday an entire trainload of immense automobile trucks arrived in San Diego from the East, to be placed in immediate service. The arrival of a large number of caterpillar tractors is looked for this week. These and the trucks will be used for getting the ground of the camp into proper shape.

There are 80,000 acres in the entire site. The military reservation proper will embrace 12,000 acres. The actual camp site will include 1000 acres. The bulk of this is nothing more than raw brush land today. About 20,000 acres must be cleared and ready for use no later than August 5, the day on which the Guardsmen are to start training.

They will include the Guards of Colorado, Utah, Nevada and California positively, and possibly also the Guards of New Mexico, Montana and Idaho. There will be in camp three brigades of infantry, one brigade of cavalry, one regiment of field artillery, one regiment of field engineers, one field hospital, six ambulance companies, one regiment of signal corps and one complete aero squadron. This will make a total of more than 32,000 men in the place.

COMFORTS IN CAMP.

In order to take care of these, a twelve-inch pipe line is being carried twelve miles in order to furnish 1,000,000 gallons of water a day. A great sewage system with septic tanks is being provided. Twenty-five athletic fields and double that number of baseball fields are being laid out. A dozen huge swimming pools are being constructed. A number of stationary buildings, necessary for the housing of stores and materials, are going up.

The material wants of a soldier will be looked after better than ever before in the history of armies. Every tent in the huge camp will be equipped with a gas heater. Each tent will have its electric lights. A circulating library and many other conveniences, and even luxuries, will be at hand for the men.

With considerable information coming from Washington, local army officers added some of the details. They all stated that the plan leaves the matter of a permanent army cantonment up to Los Angeles. If local business men, through the Chamber of Commerce and other civic organizations, make their plea strong enough, and back it up with the right kind of a site at little or no rental, the possibilities are that the plan will be accepted. Present War Department plans, calling for the enlistment and handling of several million men in the immediate future, means the selection of a cantonment site, on this Coast in addition to the one already established in Washington.

New Duties.

POLICEMAN TO JOIN NAVY AVIATORS.

GETS HIGHEST MARKINGS IN CLASS OF TWENTY-TWO.

Earl G. Reed is First Member of Local Peace Department to be Selected for Important Branch of Government Service—Will Take Flying Course at Pensacola.

Earl G. Reed, four and one-half years in the police department, yesterday enlisted in the Navy Aviation Corps. He is the first policeman in the department to join this section of the government's fighting forces. Mr. Reed will leave Los Angeles next week if his examination papers are approved at Washington.

Of twenty-two men who have taken the examinations for naval aviator, Mr. Reed passed the highest. His brother officer, E. E. Nordgaard, also took the examination, passed with high rating in every subject, but was refused because of a gunshot wound received eighteen months ago, in the course of duty, in Hollywood. The two men were members of the Hollywood division of the police department.

Mr. Reed has established a record in the Los Angeles police department for daring driving. There are but four men in the Hollywood police division who will ride in an automobile with him when he is driving. He is an ex-sailor, and is a master of the gasoline engine.

In his examination yesterday he was commended for his abnormal eyesight, a requisite which is invaluable to an aviator.

As soon as his papers are received from Washington he will leave for Pensacola, Fla., to take a training course in flying there for eighteen months.

HINTS IN COOKERY.

Housewives Hear Lectures Relating to Preparation of Varied Kinds of Grapefruit Delicacies. Home Garden Movement Being Advanced.

The Home Garden Committee met at Los Leliz school last night and discussed measures and means for forwarding the gardening movement. Among the speakers were Luther G. Brown, Mrs. C. E. Larkey, Mrs. Mary Hulan and B. R. Jones. Today there will be a meeting at Avenue Sixty-two school, which will be addressed by Luther G. Brown, C. F. Palmer, Jessica G. Hazzard and R. B. Jones.

Mrs. Hazzard, in charge of the home economics division of the committee, yesterday lectured on grapefruit jelly, grapefruit marmalade and candied grapefruit rind and the fireless cooker. Today she will speak on leftover dishes and canning in tin cans, and tomorrow on orange marmalade and gingerbread.

This phase of the committee's work is proving very popular and the lectures are being attended by many interested housewives.

CHINAMAN IS SHOT.

Benjamin W. Wing, a Chinese merchant of No. 1037 South San Pedro street, was shot early yesterday by two men as he was about to enter his shop. The attack was due to alleged dissension in the Wing family. The wounded Chinese is at the Angeles Hospital with eight bullet wounds.

JAMES DORAN WANTED.

Chief Butler yesterday was asked to search for James Doran, 55 years old, who is wanted in connection with the settlement of an estate in Nova Scotia. He is said to be in Los Angeles. Mrs. K. Sickles of No. 915 East Avenue 57 is seeking him.

HAS RIGHT OF WAY.

Head of Work in West for Fifth Arm of America's Forces Asks that It be Given Full Sway During the Special Campaign in Its Aid.

John B. Miller, in charge of the territory west of the Mississippi for the war fund of the American Red Cross, under Presidential appointment, yesterday sent to President John J. Byrne of the local Red Cross chapter the following wire:

"Please publish that the War Council desires all benefits, special club assessments, etc., postponed until after Red Cross war fund week, ending June 25—this because nothing should be allowed to interfere with the raising of the war fund."

Mr. Miller's message carries behind it the weight of the United States government, as the President has placed in the executive department of the National Red Cross Committee the entire financing of the fifth arm of the American forces.

Mr. Miller's wire was sent in response to information which has been sent him from time to time as to the various appeals that are being made upon the people to the detriment of the big Red Cross movement.

All civic organizations are to be appealed to for support, and President Byrne has collected a long list of speakers, who will lay the Red Cross appeals before the various gatherings to be held in the city during Red Cross week.

City Council Forbidden by Charter Advancing Money to Employees Now at Officers' Training Camp—Government's Pay may be Delayed.

City employees now attending the officers' training camp at the Presidio, San Francisco, may be compelled to wait long for their pay, according to a report submitted yesterday by City Attorney Stephens to the Council. Mr. Stephens said the city is not authorized by the charter to advance money to these men or to their families.

When the Council first considered the matter, the members voted in favor of loaning money to the employees, who were to return it upon receiving their salaries from the government. Just when the government will appropriate the money is not known.

ONE THING JUST FOLLOWS ANOTHER.

THEFT, ATTEMPTED SUICIDE AND JAILBREAK TOLD.

Whole Affair Started When Man is Inveigled into Giving Bill of Sale When He Really Should Have Given Receipt—Insurance Company Wins Out.

A suit of the Aetna Insurance Company against John T. Dye for the recovery of an automobile, involving the recent operations of R. J. Davis and R. L. Cramer, their subsequent arrest, and the attempt of Davis to hang himself in the County Jail, followed by escape from the psychopathic ward of the County Hospital, was heard yesterday by Superior Judge Willis.

The automobile originally belonged to M. Spazier. Davis bought it, paying $100 down and giving his note for the balance of the purchase price. A form of receipt was signed by Mr. Spazier, but it was so worded that it was virtually a bill of sale. Cramer signed the receipt as a witness.

On the strength of this so-called bill of sale, the car was sold to John T. Dye for $375. Until it was paid for the car was supposed to be in Mr. Spazier's possession, but it is alleged that Davis, asking the use of it for a couple of hours, disposed of it.

The car was insured with the Aetna company and when it was reported stolen the insurance was paid. The company finally proceeded against Mr. Dye, who had bought the car in good faith, as he set up in his answer, to get possession of the car, the policy of insurance being subrogated to the rights of the owner.

Judge Willis gave judgment in favor of the insurance company, finding that the car had been obtained from Mr. Spazier by trick, fraud and device.

Cramer, who was out on bail, disappeared, and Mr. Spazier testified in Judge Willis's court that while in Cleveland he had learned that the man was implicated in a transaction similar to the one which got him in trouble in this city.

NEW TAX FOR RURAL BUSSES.

Part of Road Repair Expense Aimed at Jitneys.

Planned by an Association of Short Railways.

State Soon to Supervise All Interurban Autos.

Directed by D. M. Swobe and C. M. Oddie, president and secretary, respectively, of the Western Association of Short Line Railroads, a new campaign will be launched in California to compel the interurban truck and jitney lines to pay something toward repairing the county roads.

The Western association is the organization which carried the litigation to the Supreme Court by which the Railroad Commission was required to accept partial control over the interurban jitneys and trucks. The control becomes complete next month by reason of a law passed at the last session of the Legislature. Except as to taxation the interurban trucks and jitneys will then be regulated like other carriers.

Mr. Oddie, who is attorney for the Nevada Central Railroad, with offices in San Francisco, said yesterday:

"The counties of California are raising millions of dollars every year by direct taxation for constructing highways and making repairs. The jitneys and trucks using the county roads, counting by mileage basis, use the roads more than private owners of the same class of autos. Jitneys average about 160 miles a day, while the private auto averages perhaps thirty miles.

"A county ordinance is being prepared, subject to amendment, of course, to meet local conditions. It will be based on mileage traveled, or gross receipts of the jitneys and trucks. The association is gauging public sentiment in the counties to ascertain if county boards of Supervisors are ready to add to the county road funds from this source.

"This proposed ordinance will be ready about the time the Railroad Commission assumes control of the truck and jitney business.

"As far as I know only three counties now tax or propose to tax the interurban trucks and jitneys —Sacramento, San Joaquin and Los Angeles. The mileage basis is the one used in the ordinances of the northern counties."

Winfield Scott, representative of the Western association, is now in Los Angeles looking over the situation, and will visit several of the southern counties before returning to the headquarters of the association in San Francisco.

The organization is made up of seventy small independent steam railroads of the West, nine of the members being in California. Several association members, like the San Diego and Southeastern, the Yosemite Valley Railroad, the Sierra Railway, the McCloud River Railroad and the Yreka Railway have been subjected to unlimited jitney and truck competition. The Yosemite, for instance, running from Merced to El Portal, has many losing months in the winter season, and in the summertime the jitneys make their appearance, carrying much of the traffic of the valley.

BIG CALL FOR CITY'S WATER.

Heaviest Day Yet in Point of Volume of Aqueduct Supply Sold.

Yesterday was the biggest day in the history of the Los Angeles aqueduct in point of the volume of water sold. Considerably more than 10,000 miner's inches of aqueduct water was taken by the irrigators of lands in the San Fernando Valley. The demand daily has been close to the 10,000-inch mark since last Thursday, and yesterday's calls sent the total volume way above this mark.

Chief Engineer Mulholland reported this pleasing situation to the Public Service Commission yesterday. He later stated the demand will go to or above 12,000 inches per day with the arrival of the first hot "spell."

At the rate of present water demands, the earnings from the aqueduct in San Fernando Valley alone run to $100 per hour, and the ranchers there are irrigating at this time from sixteen to eighteen hours per day, while some of them are running continuous irrigating crews.

RAPS LEGISLATURE.

Why not Simplify Procedure? Asks Appellate Court in Theater Suit.

In an opinion handed down yesterday by the District Court of Appeal, affirming the judgment of Superior Judge Jackson in nonsuiting an action brought by the Pasadena Realty Company against W. H. Clune to recover $5660.55, alleged to be due on account of changes and alterations made in the construction of a building in Pasadena, a sharp criticism was indulged in relating to the California General Assembly.

Under the alternative method prescribed by law for the preparation of the record in the appeal from the lower court, the Pasadena corporation had presented it in typewritten form, which is allowable under the statutes. On this point the District Court says: "The hope may be expressed that some time the Legislature, having in mind the idea of simplifying procedure, will furnish to the bar and to the courts one method of appeal only, or repeal the statute along rules of procedure and leave these matter for regulation by the rules of the courts."

The structure involved in the litigation is the motion-picture theater at the corner of Colorado and Delacy streets in Pasadena.

PUBLIC HEARING.

The Council yesterday set Friday, the 15th inst., as the date for a public hearing on the application of the contractors for the acceptance of the improvement of Brooklyn avenue. When the contractors finished the work they sent in their bill and it was held up upon the grounds that some of the material used was not up to specifications.

BOOKS SOLACE FOR SOLDIERS.

Librarians will Help Troops in the Field.

Plan an Increased Service of Reading Matter.

Authors to be Association's Guests Today.

How libraries and librarians may effectively serve their country during the time of war was the interesting topic brought up yesterday at the annual convention of the State Library Association. Milton J. Ferguson, assistant at the State Library in Sacramento, discussed activities already under way in that direction, especially the collection of magazines and books for various military camps and means of properly distributing them.

Miss Mary Barmby of Oakland, vice-president of the association, who was in the chair during the meeting at Exposition Park, suggested that a committee of five librarians make a survey to increase service to military organizations during the war. President Perry will appoint this committee today.

The programme of the day was in charge of Miss Celia Gleason, librarian of the Los Angeles County Free Library. Among the speakers were Mrs. May B. Henshall of Sacramento, who told of co-operation between county libraries and schools, and Miss Kate Foley of the State Library Board, who introduced the subject of extension work in libraries and talked particularly on aids for home teaching of the blind.

Miss Zaidee Brown of Long Beach discussed libraries in their relation to prisons. Libraries as agencies for the promotion of visual education were given considerable attention by Hubert Upjohn, director of visual education of the Los Angeles County School.

Director Frank S. Dazett of the museum told of the work being done at Exposition Park. Theodore Payne gave a delightful talk on California wild flowers. Frank A. Davidson, museum curator, delivered an address of welcome to the park. Secretary Charlotte Casey, city school librarian, called attention to the importance of the Saturday meeting, at which time library work in schools will be taken up, as well as election of officers.

Miss Gleason, hostess of the occasion, tendered a very unique luncheon to about 200 visitors. Each of those present was given a box filled with dainties and these were augmented by other refreshments. In the afternoon a part of the time was devoted to a visit to the libraries of the University of California and the Manual Arts High School.

The big event today will be the dinner at the Hollywood Hotel, at which several authors will discuss their books.

An Apology

A short time ago we announced our entire stock of Toilet Articles with three exceptions, as having entered in our Removal Sale.

Since publishing our latest advertisement of Toilet Articles (Sunday, June 3rd) several manufacturers have protested vigorously because we reduced prices on their articles which are sold throughout the country at standard marks. These manufacturers advised us that unless we immediately withdrew their articles from the sale they would refuse us further supplies in the future.

Although this store is not under the domination of any manufacturer or group of manufacturers we have withdrawn from the Removal Sale our entire Toilet Articles Department with the exception of the lines listed below. We have taken this action not from a feeling of compulsion but merely to avoid lengthy litigation which might result from our continuing to sell the "forbidden lines" at less than regular prices.

Following Articles are Still Being Sold at Substantial Discounts and We Shall Continue Sale of Them Until We are Entirely Moved or Previously Sold Out.

French Ivory Articles—such as: combs, mirrors, brushes, manicure implements, powder boxes, trays, jewel cases and other articles in pink, blue and white imported and domestic French ivory.

Bristle Goods—tooth brushes and hair brushes of all grades with handles and backs of wood, bone or ivory.

Rubber Goods—including hot-water bottles, syringes, etc.

Novelties and Miscellaneous Articles—such as: vanities, powder puffs, manicure sets, travelers' roll-ups, paper towels, drinking cups and other articles and preparations which we may be able to offer at a later date.

Mrs. Bretherton will return to Los Angeles in September.

Married at Rancho.

At a quiet wedding solemnized at Wardlawn Rancho at 3 o'clock p.m. last Sunday Miss Eva Wardlaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Wardlaw, was married to W. E. Day of the Southern Pacific. Mr. and Mrs. Day left Monday night on the Sunset limited for San Francisco, Lake Tahoe and Alaska for a month's trip, as originally programmed. Following the wedding a number of Day's Southern Pacific friends took a hand and attempted to interfere with the bridal couple's arrangements; but, due to tire trouble and a mistake as to the train on which Mr. and Mrs. Day intended to leave for the north, were unable to bid the couple the affectionate farewell originally planned.

Visits in San Diego.

Miss Bertha Pollard has been visiting the Julius Wangeheims in San Diego for several months, and passed the week-end at the home of Mrs. Edward Kendall Earle in F street, Coronado.

Wedded at Pro-Cathedral.

Attended by the immediate families of the bride and groom, Miss Celeste Shepard Hand became the bride of Gershow Charles Nitch Monday noon at St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, Dean McCormick officiating. Following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served at Christopher's, and the bridal couple left on a wedding trip, at the conclusion of which they will make their home in Fresno, where the groom is connected with the Southern Pacific. The bride is a graduate of Manual Arts High School, and was valedictorian of her class at the February commencement exercises.

were invited to attend the reception at the Leonardt home on Chester place, where an elaborate wedding breakfast was served, with toasts and much jollity. Among those who spoke were Father McRoberts, Mr. Batturs and Mr. Phelan of the Southern Pacific, Joseph Mesmer, Father Martin Keating and Harry E. Andrews. Dr. Ginnini was toastmaster. The whole wedding, from first to last, was exquisitely carried out and the couple were overwhelmed with congratulations. Many honors were paid to Mr. and Mrs. Leonardt and to the groom's mother, Mrs. McGinnis.

Banning-MacFarland.

The Banning-MacFarland wedding took place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at St. John's, which was a bower of white flowers. In keeping with the decorations, the bride and her attendants wore filmy white, the only contrasting bits of color being the dainty blue frock and hat of the little flower girl, Eleanor Wailes, and the roses carried by the maid of honor and the bridesmaids.

The bride wore a cloudy creation of white tulle over satin, and a veil which bound her forehead with a silver band. The edges were lined with natural orange blossoms. She carried a wonderful bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley, with individual blossoms hanging from white ribbons. Her only ornament was a diamond necklace and pendant. Miss Marian Fitshugh of San Francisco, her maid of honor, showed to advantage her brunette beauty in a simple frock of white, with a picture hat trimmed with pink roses and blue ribbons. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses. Her cousins, Miss Anne Patton and Miss Katharine Banning, acted as bridesmaids, and both wore white, with picture hats to match, and carried white roses. Little Eleanor Wailes was dressed in light blue, with a hat the same shade, and carried a basket of daisies, roses and larkspur. The groom was attended by Morgan Adams, and the ushers were Timothy H. Brown, Arvin Brown, John Elliott and Alfred Salisbury. Bishop Johnson performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. George Davidson.

After the wedding at the church a reception was held at the Banning residence on West Adams street, where the rooms were colorful with baskets of orchids and roses with sprays of Scotch broom and larkspur, and clusters of lilies and daisies. The bride and groom received in the gold drawing-room, and tea was served in the picturesque patio, with its ivy-lined walls and flower-circled fountain. Those who poured were Mrs. William Garland, Mrs. Joe Banning, Mrs. Sidney Wailes, and Mrs. Willoughby Rodman. The prettiest note of the wedding was when the bride, attired in a trig going-away suit, descended the stairs which led from her room into the patio, and threw her bouquet to the bridesmaids beneath. Attended by a shower of rice and good wishes the couple made their way to their machine, and sped away on a honeymoon, to be spent —well, that is a secret. After a fortnight they will be at home in Sacramento, where Mr. MacFarland is secretary to Gov. Stephens.

Many San Francisco people came down to be present at the wedding, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. William Fitzhugh, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spreckels, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grace and Mr. and Mrs. James Steel.

The one drawback in the beautiful wedding was that the bride's brothers could not be present, George Banning being at the Presidio, and Hancock, Jr., being in training in the East for military service.

WOMEN'S WORK, WOMEN'S CLUBS.

BY EMILY SQUIER.

It appears to me that the members of the Friday Morning Club Art Committee ought to have a medal apiece for bravery; they are going to give a reception for Prince Paul Troubetzskoy this afternoon at the Art Gallery at Exposition Park, on his merits as a sculptor; and if he sculps as well as he lectures on "Meat, the Cause of War and Crime," the Art Committee, and everyone else concerned, will have an idea of art that will revolutionize the business. That is why I maintain the Art Committee, individually and collectively, are heroines.

Prince Troubetzskoy is acknowledged to be a very great sculptor, but then, he was billed as a very great lecturer; and, to be sure, on the subject of the misdemeanors of meat, he was an authority; those who liked that sort of thing enjoyed it without doubt.

Will Give Banquet.

The Los Angeles Alumni Association of Emerson College of Oratory of Boston will tender a banquet to Henry Lawrence Southwick, president of Emerson College, next Thursday evening at Christopher's. Mr. Southwick is a reader and lecturer of international reputation, and during his tour of Southern California will fill engagements for the Shakespeare Club of Pasadena, Pomona Ebell Club, the State Normal School of Los Angeles and other organizations. Emersonians desirous of attending this banquet can make reservations by communicating with the president, Mrs. William Hunnewell, No. 621 Beverly drive, Beverly, or the secretary, Mrs. L. M. Towne, No. 726 North Heliotrope drive, Los Angeles.

Club Notes in Brief.

The annual meeting of the California Audobon Society will take place Saturday afternoon in the auditorium of the State Building at Exposition Park.

At 2 o'clock a business meeting will be held, and later slides of California birds will be shown by Mrs. F. T. Bicknell and Mrs. William R. Myers. All who are interested are invited to attend.

The woman's auxiliary of the Caledonian Club will hold its next meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Y.W.C.A. There will be a duet by Mrs. John Ritchie and Mrs. James McGilvary, a reading by Albert Johnston and a solo by Mrs. Margaret Tait. The hostesses will be Mmes. A. Fisher, John Lone, A. Londen, C. J. Mallery, Laura Mitchell, J. McLean, Miss Jean Miller and Miss Frances McNeil.

The officers of the Hollywood Studio Club will give a tea at the clubhouse next Sunday afternoon from 4 until 7 o'clock. An enjoyable programme has been planned.

Big Drive Starts.

they are willing to register, give them a reasonable time to do so and check them up later to see if they have complied.

"If they seem reluctant to register request them to accompany you to the City Hall, room 6, where additional registrations are being made, during regular business hours. If they refuse to register lock them up.

"It is not the desire of the Federal authorities to be unnecessarily harsh in this matter, but they are determined that all eligibles must register, and as quickly as possible.

"Persons temporarily in the city, who have forwarded their registrations to their home addresses, may not receive their cards for several days. In such cases use good judgment, but do not allow anyone to evade, by false statements or otherwise, their duty in this matter.

"It will be best for us to handle these cases in this way rather than by making arrests. No doubt, by taking the matter up with individuals personally, the men who have failed to register will readily agree to do so, rather than face arrest, when they realize that we mean business."

Anyone who fails to register, or who refuses to do so, is liable to a fine of $1000 and imprisonment in a Federal prison for the term of one year.

DAY OF GRACE.

In pursuance of instructions from the Provost Marshal of the United States, City Clerk Wilde and Registrar of Voters Lyons were permitted to register all men between 21 and 30 years old who presented themselves yesterday. Up to a late hour last night but nine had presented themselves to the Registrar of Voters at the Hall of Justice and about the same number at the City Clerk's office at the City Hall.

G. Harold Powell, member of the State Registration Board for Southern California, said yesterday that the registration in all counties was from 5 to 25 per cent. heavier than was anticipated. One of the outstanding facts revealed by a scrutiny of the registration cards is that but a comparatively small percentage of those registering claimed exemption, and those who did only on the ground of absolute dependents.

City Clerk Wilde and Registrar of Voters Lyons were yesterday engaged in classifying the registrants by age, race, occupation and as to whether aliens or alien enemies. The work of classifying the registration cards is an arduous task, as they must be so classified as to indicate to the Board of Registration of the city and the County Council of Defense, which has charge of the registration in the county, just how many of the various classes are represented in Tuesday's registration.

EXEMPTION CLAIMS.

While these officers will not give estimates as to the number who claimed exemption, an estimate, based on exemptions claimed in typical precincts, both large and small, city and country, places the number at not to exceed 35 per cent. of the total registration.

The returns from the city precincts, 705 in number, were returned early yesterday morning, but those from the county drifted in all day, there being at least two or three still out at a late hour last night. The receipts for the returns were given by the executive officers of the city registration boards and in the county Deputy Registrar Kerr attended to this detail.

After the returns reached the officers charged with compiling the multitudinous data to be prepared for the government, they were opened and classified as to age, color, etc. All cards of registered negroes were distinguished by having the lower left-hand corner torn off. Each one of the twenty-one boards of the city, through its executive officer, certified to the returns from each precinct in his district and in the county a committee of three, appointed by Judge Wood, acting for Judge Finlayson, will certify as to the correctness of the returns received by the county.

BIG JOB.

The task of classifying, returning to boards in charge and making the required copies for the Adjutant-General of the State, the Governor, the provost-marshal of the United States and copies for the press and for posting in conspicuous places, will require the full quota of time allowed, five days.

At the City Hall, the City Registration Board, consisting of twenty-one district boards of three members each, will make summarized reports of their separate districts to City Clerk Wilde. These boards worked like beavers all day yesterday and into the early hours of this morning.

The State Council of Defense will meet at 10:30 this morning and name a committee of three to pass on the returns for Registrar Lyons, who is the executive officer of the board in this particular matter. After which he will prepare his reports following the same procedure as the Mayor, and thus close up the matter as far as the board is concerned.

MAY STILL ENLIST.

Every recruiting office in Los Angeles yesterday called attention to the fact that enlistment in various branches of the service is open to all who have registered for the draft. There is still much misunderstanding regarding this. Provost Marshal Crowder telegraphed all of the local offices yesterday asking that stress be placed on the fact that enlistments are still desirable and may be continued until the day on which a man is actually called into service under the draft.

At Long Beach tardy registration blanks received through the mail and the addition of several more names to the roll by a number of young men who took advantage of the extension privilege of an additional day to comply with the law today brought that city's registration mark to 2234.

Totals made at Santa Ana yesterday showed total registered in Orange county, 4694; total natural born, 3605; total natural born who designated exemption, 2187; total colored men, 38; total colored claiming exemption, 13; total aliens, 1050; total alien enemies, 21; total in Santa Ana, 953.

The total registration at San Diego was 4944. The outlying districts in the county cannot be totaled, as less than half of the returns have been received at the County Clerk's office. But few claimed exemption in registering. About twenty members of the Universal Brotherhood of Theosophical Society located at Point Loma Homestead claimed exemption from war duty in registering at Roseville, holding that they are members of a universal peace society which is opposed to war.

FRIVOLS.

Report.

TRIANGLE CHIEFS QUIT.

NEW GRIFFITH PICTURE IS TO BE MADE ON WAR GROUND.

By Grace Kingsley.

Thomas H. Ince and Mack Sennett are no longer members of the Triangle Film Corporation, according to authentic reports from financial sources yesterday. The Triangle office itself has so far issued no statement, but it is understood that Ince and Sennett have withdrawn, and will dispose of their interests.

Triangle affairs have been warming up for some time—in fact, ever since H. E. Aitken bought out the interests of Messrs. Kassel and Baumann, and matters came to boiling point when H. O. Davis, former general manager of the Universal, was made general manager of the Triangle, both Ince and Sennett, it is reported, desiring to be allowed to work as independently as they have heretofore done. Both producers are at present in New York.

E. G. Patterson, formerly of Universal, has been sent to Culver City to take charge of the Ince studios there, according to latest reports.

There are rumors that Ince intends to produce independently with William S. Hart as his star, and as Mack Sennett can get as much money as he likes to back up his own capital, he will probably also produce independently, starting a new comedy company.

Still in France.

D. W. Griffith has put off his departure from France, in order to stage his first Artcraft production on the French battlefields. Lillian Gish and her mother have left for the European country, as Miss Gish is to be the star of the picture, which is patriotic in the interest of the Liberty Loan.

Is Again One of Us.

Douglas MacLean, formerly a Morosco Theater favorite, has completed his picture engagement with the American Film Company at Santa Barbara and is in the city.

He Jazzed Her.

Frank and Tobie made a hit at the Orpheum last Monday with their dancing, but they also made another hit. At least Frank did. Frank is, of course, only part of his name. When the pair were whirling in their last mad jockey steps, Tobie's hair began to tumble over her face. Frank reached up to brush it out of her eyes and fasten a hairpin in her yellow locks. But just then Tobie's head bobbed in unison with a particularly lively step, and Frank jabbed the hairpin straight down on her head, inflicting a painful scalp wound from which the blood soon commenced to flow. However, she managed to staunch the flow with her fingers; and that is the reason, if you noticed, the young woman held her hand to her head during the concluding steps.

Musical Note.

The Burbank Theater management received a wire from its New York office late Monday night that carries joyful tidings to lovers of good music and to playgoers in general. The local amusement house announces that on next Monday and for the entire week the famous Royal Philippine String Band, composed of eight soloists, will be the big feature act.

This band is known throughout the Philippines as the greatest native musical organization on the islands, and this is its first trip to the United States. The purpose of the band's visit to the United States is to join the musicians accompanying the Philippine soldiers who will fight for Uncle Sam.

They're Patriotic, Though.

When Margo Duffet, the beautiful Los Angeles girl, who has made such a hit in vaudeville with her husband, Dan Bruce, adopted "A Corner in Wireless" as their sketch of the season, she did not anticipate trouble from an odd quarter. In their sketch, which is a Pantages feature this week, is a real Marconi wireless apparatus which takes a distinct part in the plot. In Canada, where the search for the elusive spy and censorship regulations are very strict, the wireless came under the ban in many places. Mr. Bruce had to take the matter up with the highest authorities for permission to use it even on the stage.

Miss Anglin, Too.

Margaret Anglin is the latest big star for the Orpheum. In the early summer she will play this Coast, offering a patriotic drama, "Liberty Aflame." This is Miss Anglin's first vaudeville tour.

Will Make It Thick.

Wright and Dietrich, Orpheum stars, are going to Honolulu for atmosphere for a new act they will offer here in the fall.

Alan Dale Again.

Alan Dale has been re-engaged as dramatic critic of the New York American.

King's-Ex.

After all, Raymond Hitchcock and Billy Sunday may exchange cards next Christmas.

Raymond Hitchcock is to omit his Billy Sunday travesty in his new comic opera, "Hitchy-Koo," an agreement having been reached between the two. When Sunday made known his resentment at the Hitchcock burlesque the comedian sent back word that he would cut out the number if Sunday would let up on his attacks on the theater. Sunday consented and a truce has been declared.

Show World Review.

BILLS RETAIN FLAVOR.

HOLD-OVERS AND NEW STUNTS PLEASE BIG AUDIENCES.

Although the local theatrical programme for the week is not entirely new, everything is good, and every house in the city is being well patronized. Those kings of comedy, Kolb and Dill, continue to hold forth at the Majestic, while the Morosco is playing a second week of the famous drama, "Common Clay." At the vaudeville houses the bills are exceptionally good, Photoville becoming ever more popular.

Ruth St. Denis and her clever company are drawing tremendous houses to the Orpheum.

The picture theaters offer the usual run of good dramas and comedies, and popular stars of the screen world to be seen in Los Angeles this week are Alice Brady, Ethel Barrymore, "Fatty" Arbuckle, Dorothy Phillips, Dorothy Dalton, Valeska Suratt, Fannie Ward, Clara Kimball Young, Bessie Barriscale, Arthur Shirley and others.

Morosco.

"Common Clay," a very uncommon play, has proved one of the most sensational offerings of the season in Los Angeles, and the box office receipts this week show that the Morosco management made no mistake in holding the play for a second week. However, there are to be but five more performances of the celebrated drama, the Morosco company having prepared the George M. Cohan comedy, "Stop, Thief!" for next week.

Mason.

Replete with haunting melodies, lilting airs and syncopated tunes, "The Masked Model," under direction of John Cort, will come to the Mason Operahouse for a week commencing the 18th. The show has been making a large success in the north.

Majestic.

When Romeo and Juliet cease to be representative of the spirit of romance, then Kolb and Dill will be spoken of as separate individuals instead of, as now, a sort of combination of that spirit that makes comedy forever welcome. The famous comedians are now in their third week of "The High Cost of Loving" at the Majestic Theater.

Orpheum.

It has already been decided that Ruth St. Denis, Ted Shawn and the Denishawn girls, who are proving so popular at the Orpheum, will remain "in our midst" another week.

The two new headliners for next week's bill, beginning with Monday's matinee, are Miss Dorothy Shoemaker, with her sparkling support, in "Supper for Two," and the old Los Angeles favorites, Walter de Leon and "Muggins" Davies. The latter stars will appear in a war comedy called "Behind the Front." Ted Boyle and Harry Brown are a typical patter pair; Marion Harris is known as "syncopations's scintillant star," while Rosalind Coghlan, Lewis and Norton; Johnston, Harty and Kirk and Ruth St. Denis are holdovers.

Pantages.

With the Phunfiends and Chris Richards as headliners, there is reason to believe that the coming week at Pantages will see the presentation of the crowning programme of the season. The Phunfiends will offer their smart musical comedy, while Richards, also, is a comedian not unknown to Los Angeles vaudeville lovers.

Other acts that promise to be well worth while are Paul Decker and company in "The Twister," the Kimewa Troupe, the Marconi Brothers and the Knickerbocker Four.

Burbank.

Better and better grows Photoville at the Burbank. This week capacity houses at every performance are enjoying the picture "The Law that Failed," in which Alma Hanlon is starred, while the vaudeville acts are said to be the "classiest" so far seen at the Burbank.

Next week the headliner will be "The Royal Philippine String Band," consisting of eight soloists who have just arrived from the islands. The Celistos will entertain with a novel gymnastic performance; Arthur Barret is a dialect comedian; Silber and Karey are musicians of merit, and Jack La Follette is said to sing well enough to deserve to be forgiven for being the nephew of the Senator whose name he bears. The Exposition Trio will be held over for another week.

The new photoplay will be "The Candy Girl," starring Gladys Hulette.

Hippodrome.

The present bill at the Hippodrome is one of the best seen there in several weeks and the management promises a still better programme to come Monday. The headliner on the new programme is the Four American Kings, said to be the cleverest tight-wire specialists in vaudeville. Black and McCone will have an acrobatic novelty, filled with amusing incidents, while more humor will be furnished by Drawee, Hambo and Prisco in their skit called "Fun at the Hottentot Hotel." Bob and Beth Stanley are billed as the "Klever Komedy Kouple," while Fargo and Wells will offer some catchy expressions in music and talk.

Ryan and Ryan are novelty dancers, and the Four American Patrollers have an appealing musical act. The programme, as usual, will contain a number of good motion picture features.

Clune's Auditorium.

From forest to desert and from one shining star to another of almost equal brilliance seems to be the new rule adopted by the management of Clune's Auditorium. Following Mary Pickford, who is drawing big houses this week in "A Romance of the Redwoods," will appear William S. Hart and Marjory Wilson, next week, in "The Desert Man."

The programme at Clune's Auditorium will hereafter feature special orchestral selections, vocal numbers, organ recitals and educational and comedy pictures.

Quinn's Rialto.

Another one of those entertaining "midnight matinee" performances introduced and popularized by J. A. Quinn, is announced for the Rialto next Saturday night. The last "Garden of Allah" midnight affair was a decided success and this coming one is expected to be even more popular. It is probable, however, that the show will run another week as the house is said to be packed at each performance.

Clune's Broadway.

In "Bawbs o' Blue Ridge," Bessie Barriscale is entertaining thousands at Clune's Broadway this week. The story is one of gripping heart interest, the scenery, like all the scenes of the sensuous south, is soft in tone and outline, while Arthur Shirley and Joe Dowling are splendid support for the star of the play.

Woodley.

"Oriental Love" is a peach of a play and proves that a goat has no tact whatever. There are plenty of men and women in the cast, but there's very little romance, as the fool goat butts in every time he oughtn't and pushes the Rajah and his harem into the lotus lake. It's a rotten shame but the Keystone had to do it.

In "The Dark Road," the companion feature, Dorothy Dalton does her best to do her worst, but the audience likes her just the same.

Tally's Broadway.

"The Easiest Way," Eugene Walter's drama of theatrical life, showing the problems that beset an unprotected woman trying to make a way for herself, provides Clara Kimball Young with a splendid vehicle for expression. The play is proving so popular Mr. Tally has already decided to run the film another week.

Alhambra.

Following Fannie Ward and her excellent company in "Unconquered," the attraction at the Alhambra Theater beginning next Sunday will be Vivian Martin in her new Paramount picture called "Giving Becky a Chance."

The added feature will be an O. Henry story, called "Vanity and Some Sables," featuring Mildred Manning.

Miller's.

"The Broadway Sport" is a story of a rube who attempts to break the speed records in the white lights. He tries to be a villain, and succeeds only in becoming the laughing stock of the town. This is the photoplay that starts the week at Miller's Theater next Sunday, and is featured players being Stuart Holmes, Wanda Petit and Dan Mason.

This week it is Valeska Suratt in "The Slave."

Garrick.

Shakespeare said, "the play's the thing," but if he could see "Fatty" Arbuckle doing "The Reckless Romeo" at the Garrick this week he would admit that it's the humorous situations that count, regardless of the plot or construction of the drama.

The added feature on the Garrick bill is "Like Wildfire," featuring Herbert Rawlinson and Neva Gerber.

Palace.

Starring Peggy Hyland as Cleito, the Palace offers, for the coming week, the bizarre photoplay, "The Sixteenth Wife," an oriental fantasy filled with foolishness and several serious situations.

For the rest of the present week Alice Brady will continue to entertain Palace patrons in "Maternity," which is always a winner in the humblest home as well as in a palace.

TREND OF THE FINANCIAL NEWS.

CHIEF EVENTS OF YESTERDAY.

(At Home:) Absence of disturbances on registration day, as well as a more hopeful feeling regarding the Russian situation, served to vitalize trading on the New York Stock Exchange, with the result that industrial issues and others popularly identified with the war groups were strong, many touching the year's top prices. A break in Russian exchange resulted from small offerings, but dealers were inclined to regard the slump as of speculative origin. Bonds were irregular.

A PETTY LARCENY PIRATE.

A German submarine in the Mediterranean destroyed an American schooner of which no special complaint may probably be made since Germany and the United States are at war. But it is not permitted under international law for the victors to pilfer the personal belongings of their captives. The captain of the submarine descended to the ignominy of a pickpocket when he stripped Capt. Foote of the American schooner of his money, his watch, his gold sleeve cuffs and a fountain pen treasured as a keepsake.

WHO SHALL GO?

From the ten millions of men registered yesterday, who shall go to this war? First, those who can best afford to go—the young man without an indigent parent to support; youth with golden dreams; the man who has no holy family ties; the sons of the rich; the toilers whom duty beckons on; all those who are able, that they may do service in the war for freedom. And then, trooping in millions, if ever needed, fathers, husbands, and even old, lame, and halt will come, if whole men give out through the vastness of the enterprise.

We need an army, but not an autocratic army. On duty there should be, of course, stern discipline, prompt work, and strict attention; off duty the same equality of the civil walks of life. In the past, in the fear that this was not so, young America sometimes has hesitated to become a soldier. He did not want to be a menial, but a soldier; he did not care to be a servant, but a warrior willing to work and fight. The truest service is rendered by those least subject to humiliating exactions. Waiting on the table is one thing, but it is another and glorious thing to wait in the trenches or as a sentry beneath the stars.

We are living in the most stupendous period of history. Almost the whole map of the world may change ere peace blows its melodious bugle again.

Selective conscription is surely the best and fairest method of securing a great army, and conscription will flood the gory fields of Europe with as knightly soldiers as ever went full panoplied in courage into battle. The conscripts—to quote the language of Israel, will be the "chosen people;" will be the honored of God.

THE TAINT OF SOCIALISM.

Judged by the action of certain of its adherents, Socialism is antipathetic to patriotism. Socialist leaders have been wont to boast that Socialism is broader and more universal for patriotism; they assert that while patriotism symbolizes love of country, Socialism is founded in a love of all humanity.

Socialism and democracy have been equally put to the test in the present world-conflict. Socialism was expected to prove an ally to democracy, but the experience of the last three years has revealed that Socialism weakens the cause of democracy and strengthens that of despotism. Indications are multiplying that both France and the United States are permitting Socialism to play too important a role in their governmental organization, and that this is proving an element of weakness rather than of strength.

Great Britain seems to have awakened first to the danger. The difference was striking in the composition of the foreign commissions which visited this country last month. England sent Arthur James Balfour, the stanchest Conservative in the British Parliament. France sent Rene Viviani, a deposed Socialist Prime Minister. The American press has been filled with praise for Balfour and copious extracts from his addresses. Its sympathy was with France rather than with England, but Viviani failed to strike a resonant chord in the American heart. He was cordially received; his addresses were faithfully reported; but he awakened no enthusiasm. He discovered quickly that his ideals were not those of the American commonwealth, that there is a vast gulf in this country between democracy and Socialism. If the French government had sent an orator from the benches of the "right" in place of from the "left" the result might have been different.

President Wilson tried to avoid this error in the selection of the Russian commission by placing Elihu Root at its head. But he weakened the force of the commission materially by naming the Socialist, Charles Edward Russell, as second and choosing for the third member a union laborite selected by Gompers. This is a concession to the Russian Socialists and laborites that they will misconstrue. It gives the impression that the Russellites and Gompersites represent the predominating influence in the American republic. Sending such men to Russia at this time is choosing the blind to lead the blind.

At the time when we are throwing our very existence as an independent nation into the struggle between democracy and despotism we cannot afford to permit our patriotism to be sullied by a taint of Socialism.

ELECTION RESULTS—AMEN!

Congratulations are due to Los Angeles voters for the wisdom displayed at the polls on Tuesday. Their verdict was a repudiation of humbug and official recklessness. They justly rebuked the five candidates for the Council who defiantly refused to separate themselves from the grasping billboard octopus. They frowned again upon the squandering of money through unnecessary bond issues. They showed commendable sense of civic duty in sounding the death knell to the jitney bus menace and did well in their selections of public servants.

How deeply interested the electors were in the various issues presented was shown by the unusually large vote. Seldom at a local election have so many voters taken advantage of the suffrage. They realized how sharply the lines were drawn and how important many of the questions were and they felt it a duty to voice their sentiments by means of the ballot.

That the people look upon the newspapers as public institutions and will not countenance the effrontery of any public official who would send all the newspapers to Hades, must be assumed after a glance at the total of votes cast for the billboard candidates for the Council. The electors demonstrated their disapproval of such tactics on the part of public officials. It is true the candidates disavowed their affiliation with the trust, but they never made it clear and the voter took the only method at his command to rebuke them.

In casting a decisive vote in favor of strict regulation of the jitney bus, the voters took a precautionary step against an evil which was growing at an alarming rate. Now the electric railways, which have contributed so much toward the upbuilding of Los Angeles and Southern California, will be able to operate upon the basis of efficiency that marked their progress prior to the coming of the unsightly busses. The downtown streets will no longer be clogged with the cheap-looking hacks; traffic will move more regularly and with greater safety and everyone will be better off. Elimination of the jitney bus from busy streets will result in a betterment of conditions and the people will never experience a pang for having thus done their duty in solving the perplexing problem.

Defeat of the two proposed bond issues was to be expected. The voters were unwilling to assume the additional tax burden at this time. Ordinarily Los Angeles citizens are very generous when it comes to supplying money for public improvements, but they are satisfied to let the city run along on an even keel for a while and wait until the way is opened for diminishing the present indebtedness before getting under another load.

Due to several reasons the electors were confronted with a knotty problem in attempting to pick nine deserving candidates for the Council. No doubt two or three deserving citizens went down to defeat, but taken as a whole the voters exercised rare judgment. Of the majority of the Councilmen-elect only words of commendation can be said and it may be that the remainder will happily surprise us in the capacity of public servants.

The Board of Education comprises citizens of known integrity and high standing in the community. Again the voters should be congratulated for their discernment and care in their choosing of the men and women who will look after the welfare of the public schools during a period which means so much to their future.

Viewed from every angle Tuesday's election is a source of gratification. It demonstrated that the voters are wide awake to their responsibilities and are tired of costly experiments and more costly demagogues. The tide has apparently turned toward sanity. It is all very encouraging.

PATRIOTISM LIVES!

The country is aflame with patriotism. Because there is no beating of drums and there are few flags flying above cheering crowds, no tumult and excitement, let no one think that the spirit of modern youth is dull or drab. Not so, and far from it.

Ten million young men throughout the nation marched to registrars on Tuesday and offered themselves as an army for the United States. There was no noise, no shouting, no violence, no rioting, no protests. The youths and men went quietly, unneedful of the psychic hysteria that in bygone days has rolled volunteers around the flag.

Today we look back to the Civil War period as the greatest patriotic epoch in American history, when to the words of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" hundreds of thousands of men marched valiantly to the ranks. But we have largely forgotten, because it is unpleasant to remember, that the armies of the North were at last filled by conscription, and that the conscription was accompanied by bloody riots, so that at one time a small army was quartered in New York City alone to surpress the seditious malingering of the shirkers. There was howling and gnashing of teeth, street fighting and brawling, and men were killed while seeking to evade service. And those are remembered as patriotic days—and they were patriotic despite the rioting of cowards.

But the youth and men of the country in 1917 did not hesitate, did not brawl. The war in Europe is not what is called a popular war. It is still too far away for emotionalism to surge like boiling wine through the veins of men eager to fight and ready to die when the foeman's foot touches American soil. It is a war of duty rather than of passion. The young men have looked across the seas. They know that they should go. They know that they may die. But they do not flinch—for they can see that, remote as the war is, it nevertheless has placed in jeopardy our own nation; and it is wiser to fight an inevitable enemy on or near his own soil than to wait for his assault.

The grimness of the enlistment evokes great admiration. The vast army that offered itself was silent; it was the quiet resolution of earnest men determined to see dangerous work through, clear through. Nothing like it has ever been accomplished in any country at any time. It is called conscription. It was more like volunteering. There was no actual force in many parts of the country that could have dragged men to the registrars' offices; no preparations had been made to deal with organized opposition. None was needed. Americans are peace-loving, but they have shown themselves to be unafraid of war. We who have been in the midst of this mighty consecration—a consecration which has given to a nation, which on Monday was without an army, a force of potentially 10,000,000 men—we have taken this epochal event so much for granted that we fail to appreciate its complete significance. Historians will point back to June 5, 1917, as a day of days in America's destiny; and it may—we hope, we expect that it will—be pointed to as the day upon which our foe Germany's fate was sealed.

Down and Out.

A BLOW FOR GOMPERS.

The Flaherty anti-injunction, picketing bill, dictated by Sam Gompers, himself, which was to insure the domination of the union labor despots over free California, is now but a bit of worthless paper, filed away with thousands of other rejected bills in the basement of the State Capitol at Sacramento. The star of industrial freedom is in the ascendant. The vicious work of the Legislature has been rendered impotent through the patriotic refusal of Gov. Stephens to become a party to the betrayal of free labor and independent industry. Despite the onslaughts of Gompers, Tveitmoe and their pack, the authority of the law has not been shattered! the force of injunction has not been broken.

No campaign of the American Federation of labor was ever more carefully planned and insidiously waged than that to secure the enactment in California of an anti-injunction law. The Flaherty bill was based, in a general way, on the provisions of the Clayton Anti-trust Act. This bit of Federal legislation was passed by a Democratic administration over the protests of the adherents of the cause of industrial freedom. It has led to strikes and riots in a number of States and is a serious menace to the preservation of interior peace while the country is engaged in a foreign war. The anti-injunction section of the Clayton act is certain to be modified if not wholly repealed whenever the Republican party returns to power. It may be repealed by a nonpartisan vote in the next Congress.

Gompers and his pack are aware that the Federal anti-injunction act will be short-lived and they have been making desperate efforts to get its most drastic provisions incorporated in the statutes of a number of States before it is finally repealed. Their influence, coupled with the political strength of the Western Federation of Miners, was sufficient to write some of the provisions of the act into the statutes of the State of Utah. Then they made a trade with the heads of the Johnson machine at Sacramento to secure the passage of an anti-injunction act by the Legislature of California. The pay roll brigade delivered enough votes to get the bill through the Legislature; but such a storm of protest came from the commercial and industrial organizations of the State that Gov. Stephens, who is opposed to such vicious legislation, properly killed it with a pocket veto.

Crushed by the collapse of their elaborate and highly expensive campaign in favor of anti-injunction, Tveitmoe, McLoughlin and Scharrenberg have slunk away from the limelight. They are asking as a last favor that, for the time being, they may be forgotten. Some of their fanatic following have been clamoring for an initiative petition for the re-enactment of the Flaherty act; but this is discouraged by the leaders themselves. One of them is known to have wired to a union labor politician here that it would be folly to resort to the initiative, that anti-injunction would be hopelessly beaten in the general election next year and that this would be a bar to a possible renewal of the anti-injunction fight in the next Legislature.

Friends of industrial freedom have good reason for exulting over the discomfiture of the labor union despots. The anti-injunction bill was a serious menace to the labor and industry of California. As pointed out by Gov. Stephens, the provision of the bill providing for a jury trial in case an injunction was violated would have so weakened the authority of the courts that protection to person and property under the law would have been impossible. The act would have served as a loophole through which violators of the liquor laws, the red-light abatement act and the anti-gambling acts could have escaped just punishment for their crimes. But its worst feature was that it would have legalized picketing and sabotage and would have placed the labor union despots outside and above the law.

Mo more notable victory for the cause of industrial freedom has been won in a decade. Senator Johnson is welcome to the full gratification that he may draw from the fact that the Legislature which passed so notorious a measure is the Legislature which signed the equally notorious Johnson patronage pledge, indorsing the "wise and economical administration of the government of California during the last six years."

THE WAR—WHY?

From the fissure of an embankment overlooking the sidewalk smiles a lonely marigold, washed there from a terraced garden when the rain king swept the land. When the next storm comes the pretty blossom will be swept down to the pavement and the feet of passing throngs will crush its golden heart to blackened dust. Yet the marigold keeps smiling at all who pass that way. So it is with man. Experience and observation should naturally make him a cynic, but there's something in his soul that keeps him smiling. What is it? Man is an insect flying through the mist of night and time, a ghost that is never quite sure of himself nor of anything he sees or tastes or touches. He is born and begins to weep. Later he learns to smile. He is cared for and watched over for years—to what end? Who can tell? He becomes a man. Suddenly a storm of misunderstanding sweeps over the world, embroiling all nations in war. For the honor or liberty of his country, or because he will not be called a coward, or for love of adventure or because he is compelled, the man goes to war. Perhaps he becomes a great leader; perhaps death takes him before his ears have ever heard the cannon's roar. It is no difference. What is he fighting for? He hardly knows, yet at times he imagines he knows the reason for the conflict and senses the result. He says, "It all started from greed and oppression, but the result will be a free, happy world." He believes that back of the greed and oppression and misunderstanding that bring about the death of millions is a great, wise cause working forever for man's greatest good. Surely only the first cause is responsible for creation, growth and decay and only supreme wisdom knows what the end will be. But to the man of faith "the rim of shadow is the line of light." Whence came faith if it had no foundation? Will there come a time when

"Man, in the sunshine of the world's new spring, Shall walk transparent like some holy thing?"

and are those who fall in battle preparing themselves for happier spheres? Man has only faith, and faith stimulates his courage—and he walks bravely on with head erect, smiling and waiting for the world's redemption.

OUR PROFESSION.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

There is no profession quite like ours. We, the newspapers, are the great clearing-houses of all the human emotions, ambitions, splendid ideals, pitiful degradations, triumphal successes, dismal, sordid failures. Whether it's a great human melodrama, gory with blood, or a lofty, idealistic, soul-expanding movement; whether it is the great romance of big business or some earnest little lady's efforts towards national duty via a Red Cross tea party; whether it is the Liberty Loan and national conscription or a free civic center picture show for the improvement of the young idea in aesthetic taste; whether it is interpretive dancing and the Ballet Russe; or baby day and pure milk for infants; whether it is a great fire, an absconding daughter, a vitriolic divorce suite, a family legacy quarrel, an entertainment for the children's hospital, a theatrical debut, a wedding, a birth, a death, a suicide, an automobile accident, a silver wedding, a morals efficiency banquet, raisin day, the high cost of living, pearls in oysters, patriotic exercises, eugenic babies, birth control, woman's suffrage or next year's crops—it all comes through the press—the heart, the pulse, the veins of the nation.

There is not an ardent, enterprising soul who starts anything but he first enlists the aid of the newspapers—whether it be Estelle Lawton Lindsey with a mission to cure roosters of their early propensity for crowing or President Wilson appealing to the nation to save democracy; whether it is Germany applying culture with blood and iron, or the medicine men proclaiming a cure for tuberculosis; whether it is the vers libres poets and the futurist artists or municipal music for the masses and the feeding of the poor—they all cry out to the newspapers for support, publicity, propaganda—and we never fail them.

No matter what evil needs exposing, what wrongs need righting, what reforms need airing, what views need expression, what victories and triumphs cry out for recognition—the newspapers are the natural channel through which they reach public cognisance.

Every church organization, woman's club, charity society, every chapter of the D.A.R., the U.D.C. and the United States Daughters of 1812, every branch of the P.-T.A. and the Congress of Mothers, every sorority and fraternity and lodge and Red Cross and navy league unit, every political aspirant, reformer, uplifter looks to the newspapers to advertise their hopes and fears and aspirations, to record their doings, clear down from their noble efforts to get vast appropriations from the State for their pet enthusiasm to "and a social hour was spent and delicious refreshments were served."

From the earnest social worker who comes to us with a great scheme for uplifting humanity to the mother with tear-dimmed eyes, who implores us to save her erring son from the gallows; from the infuriated politician who suspects conspiracies against his reputation, to the lady who is devoting her life to fighting vivisection—ours are the ears into which all the troubles, heartaches, visions, hopes and loves are poured.

When great Russia throws off Czardom over night, or China passes a resolution against opium, or when Fifth Avenue, New York, is startled with a crinoline and pantalettes, we are the first to hear about it, ours the hands through which it must pass before it is served to the public at breakfast next morning. Be it a golfer who has broken a course record or a valiant hero who has shown spectacular bravery in the face of bloody terror, be it a drunken husband who has nearly killed his wife and children, or some celebrity's latest excursion in affinities, we are the channel through which the deed is recorded, through which enlightenment and knowledge reach the world.

And no matter what we print, somebody is always indignant, somebody is always gratified. Even when it is a sordid scandal, one party to the woe always wants it put in and the other always wants it kept out. Even when we newspapers stand for pure unsullied patriotism, there is always some disgruntled Socialist to write us an abusive letter. Even when we have hearkened unto the passionate plea of the little lady who wants her pink tea recorded with a full list of guests, we can be sure of a complaint because somebody's name was spelled wrong or some other lady's party had two lines more.

They will not scold us and criticise us, blaspheme us, kick us, reproach us—but in their hour of great hope, of deep woe, of divine exaltation, of sublime longing, of dreadful shame, they come to us with their prayers.

The newspapers are inextricably mixed up with all the human emotions, they are in contact with every home, every sanctuary, every religion—the daily mirror of humanity with all its strife, its longing, its heartaches, its little triumphs. Whether it is a society tea or a funeral, the birth of a king or the death of a felon, a fairy pageant or the social evil, the submarining of a great ocean liner or the victorious winner of a yacht race, a monster labor strike, jitney busses, billboards, new fashions, June brides, or the blue sky law, soul kisses, typhus germs, or a society scandal—the newspaper is the great vehicle of expression, understanding, information, sympathy.

Things You Can Do for the Country.

The fighting man can die for it;
The saving man can buy for it;
The aviator fly for it;
The thrifty cook can fry for it;
The thirsty can go dry for it;
The daring man can spy for it;
The egotist can I for it;
The diplomat can lie for it;
The farmer can grow rye for it;
The workingman can ply for it;
The very babies cry for it,
And all of us can try for it.

HITS AND MISSES BY OTHER PAPERS.

One bond of unity in Germany is underscored in the significant remark of the Tageszeitung in regard to the new war loan: "Assurances by the government can only be given in the expectation of a large war indemnity." On the one hand the German people are being systematically encouraged to expect an indemnity, and on the other they are as systematically taught that without such indemnity they collectively and individually face financial ruin. It is a powerful argument which the German government is using as unscrupulously as a get-rich-quick financier.—[Springfield Republican.

It is quite safe to say that if all Americans do their duty to the nation throughout the duration of the war with as constant and controlling a sense of what they owe their country as the great newspapers are revealing every day the government will have extremely little to complain about and the United States will carry on its part of the world conflict with enviable freedom from scandals and avoidable difficulties of whatever nature.—[Cleveland Leader.

She is a devoted alumna of her alma mater and her record as a student was one of distinction. Just at this time those who have the keenest appreciation of actual conditions brought about by the war are confronted by the serious problem of drawing a line between arousing the nation to a proper realization of what war means and creating a state of uneasiness and confusion that will be a positive detriment in organizing national deficiency. This is apparent in the food situation, where the admonitions to economize to meet a shortage have caused hoarding and overbuying which will aggravate the very conditions they sought to relieve.—Brooklyn Eagle.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

BE READY.

We can't conduct a modern war—
the kind that we've been planning for—without abundance of long green; therefore, go slow on gasoline, and luxuries of every sort; quit drinking grape juice by the quart, quit eating pie three times a day and idly throwing coin away. For soon you'll face a heavy tax that will put stitches in your backs, and freeze your gay and winning smile, unless you've laid away a pile. We cannot run a modern scrap, and push the Kaiser off the map, that butcher who too long hath sinned—we cannot do him up with wind; 'twill take a large and weighty bar'l, to put the lid on Bill and Carl. The tax that you will have to pay won't set you back for half a day, if you'll be prudent, now, and wise; cut out imported smokes and pies; blow in less staple brands of coin for porterhouse and tenderloin; don't bet your money on the nags, spend less for rich and gaudy rags. Life's been for years one grand sweet song, we've lived in luxury so long, it may at first seem quite a strain to save a share of what we gain. But if we pickle sundry dimes, we'll bless ourselves in after times, when tax collectors come around, to nail the shilling and the pound.

"Them billboards ain't editing this town." Nay!

That billboard trust certainly was pasted.

All that is asked of the Russians is that they behave.

Everybody, or about everybody, is getting on the bond wagon.

Wow-wow—it was a shock to the "Solid Five" of the Council.

Well, we have a good Board of Education. Our schools will do.

Quite a number of local Chinese registered. They all had the queue.

Why not make generals of all men who have the nerve to wear straw hats?

There is some sign in the election returns that the people are getting back to first principles.

However, Mrs. Estelle Lawrence Lindsey should not object. It is the canning season here?

"Shorter hours for women" is a slogan in the East. The sign of brevity has long been demonstrated on the skirts.

Back East several Socialists committed suicide rather than submit to the draft. Nobody worried, everybody satisfied.

There is a new deal on in the City Hall. Who will cut the cards?

Men's coats with large flowing sleeves will be barred.

We men do a lot of growling over the fashions of women, but are not responsible for them? Who would not like any other kind.

We note that one James Rolph, Jr., is a member of the Italian contingent now in this country. What regards to Peter Finley Dunne.

There has been nothing exciting the public life of the "Solid Five" as their act in leasing Hall. This may be interpreted both ways from the jack. Read your Hoyle.

Did you know that during the month the distance of the earth is only about [illegible] miles? Of course, it may be a few miles more, but it is in that vicinity.

The dispute between Gen. Goethals and Chairman Denman of the Shipping Board is over. Now let them build the ships. Whether they be of wood or steel depends on which is handier.

Walter Lippman, less than 30 years of age, has been appointed "confidential assistant" to Secretary of War Baker. It is evident that the Ohio man needs assistance confidential and otherwise.

The plan to cut the tax on chewing gum out of the war bill is another victory for the gentler sex. It is neither a munition nor a ration, but there is enormous demand for it by the troops of the Allies.

In the dispatches concerning the overthrow of the Chinese war lords our old friend, Dr. Sun Yat Sen, is in evidence. He has recently been too busy in the laundry trade to give much attention to the wiles of diplomacy.

The export record of the United States for the twelve months ending April 30, 1917, amounted to $[illegible],000,000, an increase of more than $2,000,000,000 over the previous year. This is certainly becoming a big dollar country.

If Congress concludes to tax excess profits in business, there will certain to be a large decrease in the factions to many worthy causes. There are many rich men in this country who distribute their wealth with a generous hand. This will be stopped.

Henry E. Huntington has won a case in the English courts involving misrepresentation in regard to a valuable picture he purchased from a dealer there. Mr. Huntington claimed the work was not that of George Romney, a celebrated English portrait painter of the eighteenth century, and the jury agreed with him. But the feature of the case was that almost an equal number of expert witnesses testified either side of the contention, showing what a difference of opinion there may be on any given point.

[illegible] government's alleged discrimination in the present crisis between osteopathic physicians and [illegible] is the big question facing the California State Association of Osteopaths, which convenes today at the Elks' Club.

Dr. Rasko Meacham, president of the American Osteopathic Association, has arrived from Asheville, N. C., to tell what steps are being taken in Washington toward the passage of a Federal law permitting osteopaths to practice in the army or other branches of service.

Throughout the country osteopaths have formed ambulance corps, base hospital and similar organizations, and have offered these to the government. In each instance, it is said, they have been courteously refused solely to the violent opposition of the American Medical Association. ### GAS MEN WIN.

The Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation successfully defended in Judge Taft's court yesterday the suit of Tony del Beato, who has a photographic business on Sunset boulevard, for damages involving a bill of $11.12 for electric light. The corporation cut off the current when a dispute arose. The claim was made that the corporation did not remove the meter so that a contract could be made with another company. As a result, Mr. Del Beato alleged his business was ruined. He asked $2400 damages. The jury gave judgment in favor of the corporation.

PATROLMAN IN DEATH BATTLE.

Operated on for Fifth Time, Fights for Life.

Shot Through Lung by Bandit Three Years Ago.

Sets Bravery Record that is to be Rewarded.

Patrolman Chester A. Lloyd, who, with a hole in his right lung, has established a record for bravery and fought a fight for life perhaps unequaled by any other man in the police department, has undergone his fifth operation. He is at the California Hospital, battling death as never before.

Members of the force asked Chief Butler yesterday to designate today as remembrance day, during which every officer in the department will contribute a slight sum towards payment of the hospital and others bills incurred by the patient.

Patrolman Lloyd was shot by a highwayman on the night of November 22, 1914. He saw a man stealing away from the Sisters' Hospital, and though not on duty at the time, ordered the culprit to explain his actions. The burglar answered with a fusillade of bullets, one of which entered Lloyd's body above the heart, tearing away a large section of his lung.

Lloyd emptied his revolver at the burglar who fled. He reloaded and for a few feet followed the man. Then he fell. According to the report made by Lieut. C. E. Johnson, then in charge, Lloyd's actions were as follows:

"The officer fell, after which he got up and went to the house at No. 1001 Sunset boulevard, aroused the occupants, and telephoned to the detective bureau, telling the officer in charge that he had lost a prisoner and asking that detectives be sent to help in the search. He did not mention being wounded, but when he fell to the floor, the owner of the house called the ambulance."

Two months after the first operation, a second was performed and two ribs were removed. Hearing of the Mayo brothers, in Rochester, Lloyd was sent there, where two more ribs were removed. A year ago Dr. Wiley operated again, and after this fourth incision Lloyd improved rapidly. His strength increased so that in a few weeks he was on his feet again, assigned to tracing missing persons, a comparatively light detail. With his smile and his wound Lloyd secured a little automobile, and went up and down the streets seeking the lost. He became known as the "Skipper of the Port of Missing Men." He kept his own books, made his own reports, and in less than 100 days had found 1000 persons.

But last week fever gripped the wound and Monday night Dr. Stookey advised another operation to insure the policeman's life. Lloyd was told of it. Smilingly he started to unpin his badge, asking for a leave of absence.

"Keep your shield," said the Chief, "you'll get no leave of absence. You are always on duty."

Lloyd's young wife and his baby will be near him each day in the hospital.

QUIET REGISTRATION BRACER FOR MARKET.

Absence of Disturbances During Enrollment for War, as Well as More Hopeful Feeling Respecting the Russian Situation, Serve to Vitalize Trading, with Result that Industrials are Strong.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, June 6.—Absence of disturbances over registration day and a more hopeful feeling respecting Russian affairs, despite the sharp decline in rubles to their lowest record, infused fresh vitality into today's market. Industrials and other shares popularly identified with the several war groups were the strongest features, many of these issues rising to the year's best prices. Rails and other standard stocks followed in desultory fashion. United States Steel, the Bethlehems, Lackawanna, Crucible, Midvale, and Utah States Steel, as well as Republic Iron, Colorado Fuel and others of less importance registered extreme advances of 2 to almost 10 points. Industrial Alcohol was the most sensational feature, making a steady ascent of 16¾ points to 156¼, and fully retaining virtually all its advantages. Shippings and motors constituted the heavy features. Oils also held back, but sugars were moderately strong. Total sales were 1,040,000 shares. The break in Russian exchange to 25.35 resulted from small offerings, but dealers in exchange were inclined to regard the slump as of speculative origin. Bonds were irregular, total sales, par value, $2,125,000. Several United States coupon and registered issues were off 1 to 1¾ per cent. on call.

BULL MARKET ON LOCAL EXCHANGE.

PRICES OF OIL STOCK SHOW BIG GAINS.

Announcement of Dividends on General Petroleum Causes Advance in Quotations—Union is also Strong—Better Demand for Mining Shares.

One of the biggest bull flurries in recent years occurred on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday. The cause of the sharp advance in prices and heavy demand for the oil stocks started when the story came down from San Francisco that the board of directors of the General Petroleum Company had declared a quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent., placing the stock on a 10 per cent. dividend basis. This started a heavy buying movement in the stock, and sales were registered in the afternoon at 102.00. Union Oil in sympathy moved up to a high of 132.50, aided to a considerable extent by professional manipulation. Even at the advanced quotation, on account of the earnings of the company, Union looks like a very good buy, but there has been so much unscrupulous manipulation on the part of certain brokers in sending this stock first up and then down that the actual market value of the shares is no criterion of their intrinsic worth. Amalgamated sold at 65.50, and Associated brought 63.50, while there was a better inquiry for the cheaper petroleum securities.

Trading in the metals group also assumed heavier proportions Wednesday, and prices were on the whole stronger. United Eastern sold at 4.15, and Tom Reed at 1.86; while Yellow Pine and Big Jim received a fair measure of attention. The lower-priced Oatmans sold more readily, but according to reports from that camp things are not very lively there. In the industrial list sales were recorded in Home Telephone preferred and common at practically unchanged quotations, and Los Angeles Investment brought .68.

PRODUCE MARKET.

According to the Associated Warehouses for June 1 there were 1,000,000 cases of eggs, and 6,054,000 pounds of butter on hand in fifty-three cold storage plants of the organization, compared to 2,907,000 cases of eggs and 1,150,000 pounds of butter one year ago and 1,110,000 cases of eggs and 4,000,000 pounds of butter the year before last. With such a careless glance would appear to be a very, but such is not the case. While the country fresh eggs are coming in exceptionally high the result that the consumption demand has been cut down and the surplus is in consequence being placed in storage for winter's use.

The healthy situation storage for the coming winter is better than they are in fact, as it is a foregone conclusion that high prices for eggs have driven down the consumption and cause to keep it at a low price declines considerably the case in Los Angeles are selling extra eggs are selling a dozen to the producer, cents a dozen above the at a normal year. Those are figuring on storing and pay this price for the place them in storage, carry the eggs until sold. In fact not at all the holders charge extra high prices for eggs. With a decided greater supply of storage eggs than some one is going to it will in all probability and the consumer. There are approximately 20,000 more above what there ought in the city, and the needless San Francisco is 25,000

The market was rather lively on the Produce Exchange yesterday morning, with a large number of eggs changing hands. Cheese and other were in light. The receipts were 1,000 cases of eggs, 67,000 pounds of butter, 14,110 pounds of cheese, 1,000 pounds of potatoes, 207 sacks of onions and 337 sacks of beans.

DOLLIE GOING TO CABARET.

Red Cross Rosie Will See the White Lights for First Time.

Red Cross Rosie, the auxiliary's little doll that has taken the city by storm, will reign at Levy's Cafe tonight and a large sum is expected to be derived for the cause. Those selling the tiny fad are doing the work gratuitously. Sales were many yesterday in motion-picture camps and on the streets, where Miss Ethel MacDonough, the inventor, beat a big drum to attract attention.

Mrs. Martha Nelson McCan will speak on Red Cross work before the graduating class of the Angelus Hospital at Ebell Club tonight. An Ebell auxiliary will form at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Mrs. F. M. Hotchkiss will speak. Mrs. Robert H. Lindsey will speak at Pythian Castle, Avenues 64 and Ruby street, tonight. A patriotic meeting is to be held at 2 o'clock today at the public forum of the Broadway Department Store.

The steamer Conemaugh has been under repairs at Seattle since the fire of Coos Bay recently, and will resume service as soon as renamed the Nanking. The steamer will be placed on the run between San Francisco and the Orient under the flag of the Chinese Republic. # NEW HIGH RECORDS FOR SEASON MADE.

TRADE INTERESTS CREDITED WITH HEAVY BUYING.

October Contracts up $5.65 Per Bale from the Low Level of Monday Morning but Closing Prices are Several Points off from the Best, Under Selling.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, June 6.—New high records for the season were made in the Cotton Exchange today. Trading was less active, however, than on previous advances, and Recent Wall street and western buyers seemed to be taking profits. Trade interests were credited with heavy buying, the belief being that domestic mills were purchasing new crop deliveries against sales of goods extending up to next January. October contracts sold up to 22.43 during the middle of the afternoon, making an advance of 7 points from the closing price Monday, but no less than $5.65 per bale from the low level Monday morning. July contracts sold up to 22.97, and closed at 22.93. The closing prices were several points off from the best under realizing, with the tone irregular, but the last quotations showed gains of 59 to 60 points. Foreign and domestic trade interests were credited with buying, which was the covering by early sellers as prices worked into high ground. The weekly weather report read more favorable than last week's, but mentioned various drawbacks, and failed to inspire any fresh selling of consequence. No exports were reported for the day. Exports thus far this season total 4,962,866 bales, against 8,131,427 last year.

| 7—Ceding land to United States | 63,713 | 11,168 |
| 8—Jitney-bus initiative | 28,816 | 55,019 |

THE NET RESULTS.

The jitney busses will be strictly regulated, both bond issues were defeated, the "solid five" candidates for re-election to the Council were repudiated, five of the seven members of the Citizens' ticket of candidates for the Board of Education were elected. This gives in a nut shell the result of Tuesday's municipal general election.

Complete returns verified in every instance the predictions made early after the polls closed. It was estimated last night that the total vote was approximately 90,000. Few city elections have drawn as many electors to the polls.

The decisive action of the people on the jitbus menace was given much discussion yesterday. Officials of the motorbus association declared it will put at least 75 per cent. of the jitney drivers out of business. Street railway men said it will result in increased efficiency on the part of railways and they believe the people will never regret their action. Rumors that the jitbus owners would contest the validity of the proposition were denied by some of their leaders.

HOW IT HAPPENED.

Friends of the nine Councilmen-elect showered them with congratulations during the day, while the defeated candidates received condolences from many quarters. That the defiant attitude of the "solid five" upon the billboard question was the principal factor in their defeat was generally accepted. It was not the billboards alone, in the opinion of astute politicians, however, that sealed the fate of the quintette, but rather the fact that they permitted themselves to be given the brazen support of the "trust."

A majority of the members of the incoming Council gathered at the City Hall yesterday morning and discussed the selection of a president. Owing to his experience and other qualifications, the newly-elected members seemed to be unanimously in favor of giving the honor to J. S. Conwell. However, the matter was not definitely decided and may not be for several weeks.

Official canvass of the votes will be started this morning and when the returns are certified by the City Clerk the various propositions will become operative. This is of particular significance to the jitbus owners, as their time for using the prohibited zone—First street to Eighth street between Main and Hill streets—expires when the certification is made.

BILLBOARD ACTION.

Because of the expression of the people on the billboard situation, Councilman Brain said yesterday he will insist that action be taken today on an ordinance that will be acceptable to a majority of the citizens. He said he does not believe it justice to delay the matter and will do all he can to dispose of it at once.

A long interview by Councilmen Betkouski and Wheeler and Mayor Woodman yesterday afternoon gave rise to the rumor that the defeated incumbents were discussing appointments or something of the sort. Mayor Woodman said the conference was in connection with the budget and nothing else. Mr. Betkouski said he believed he was to be congratulated for his defeat, as it will give him time to attend to his personal affairs, which he has neglected for several years.

NOT A SOCIALIST.

John B. Reeves, one of the Councilmen-elect, will leave Saturday for Evansville, Ind., to attend the national convention of master plumbers. He will return in ample time to be present when the new Council takes it seat.

Mr. Reeves said yesterday he deplored rumors to the effect that he had ever voted the Socialist ticket or was affiliated with that party in any way. Regarding reports that he has been a naturalized citizen only a short time, he said he filed his first application for papers twenty years ago, but until he came to Los Angeles never remained in any place long enough to secure the final document. He said he secured his final papers here four years ago.

Sunshine.

ORPHAN IS ADOPTED.

Child, Whose Father was Killed in Automobile Accident, and Her Mother Took Her Own Life, Becomes a Member of Teacher's Family.

A ray of sunshine came into the life of baby Rosalie Borgiorni, who was orphaned recently, when Prof. and Mrs. Gilbert S. Bailey adopted her in proceedings before Judge Reeve of the Juvenile Court, yesterday.

Rosalie is 3 years old. Her father, Alexandria Borgiorni, an attorney, was killed when an automobile in which he was riding collided with a street car. Her mother, Gwendolyn Borgiorni, grieving over his death, took her own life while mentally disturbed.

Rosalie was taken in charge by the Baileys. Mrs. Bailey, her great-aunt, became her guardian, and now by the court proceedings she is her mother. Prof. Bailey holds a chair in the University of Southern California.

MONKEY AND PARROT TIME.

Only This is a Story of Chickens, Cats and a Cow.

Victoria Lopez of No. 336 North Indiana street and Michela Arroyos are neighbors. Yesterday the former appealed to the police to prevent her cow becoming poisoned. She has three cats. Mrs. Arroyos had little chickens. The Lopez cats ate the Arroyos chickens, and there was a scarcity thereof.

Witness therefore the action of Mrs. Arroyos, who is said to have poisoned some of her chickens. The cats ate them and in turn were poisoned. Two of them died.

So yesterday Mrs. Lopez asked the police to protect her cow.

Action Needed.

SPEED UP ON LIBERTY LOAN.

Southland not Contributing its Full Share.

Appeal Issued for Citizens to Do Their Duty.

Tremendous Profits Sure to Accrue to State.

The Los Angeles Liberty Loan Committee issued an urgent appeal yesterday to all citizens of Southern California to at once get behind the present drive for subscriptions, as the money so far pledged to the government war loan is less than had been expected. According to several members of the Executive Committee there must be a great improvement in the amount of subscriptions between now and June 15 if Southern California is to subscribe her full share. Pasadena already has contributed her full allotment of $2,000,000, and in all likelihood will take another $1,000,000 before the subscription books close.

But Los Angeles, according to the bondmen of the city who are endeavoring to secure subscriptions, is not doing her part.

At a well-attended luncheon at the Clark Hotel yesterday, members of the Ad Club listened to a stirring appeal from Leslie B. Henry of the local committee who impressed upon all those present the importance of over-subscribing the bond issue. He asked all advertising men of the city to use their individual and combined advertising ability and influence in boosting the Liberty Loan.

Big mass meetings will be held today of employees of the Union Tool Company and the Llewellyn Iron Works. Short addresses will be made by speakers well versed on the subject of the government war loan and then every man present will be asked to buy a bond. It is anticipated the response will be more than generous.

WE'LL BENEFIT.

California will be one of the first States to benefit from the money that the United States government will spend as the result of the Liberty Loan, said a prominent banker Wednesday. California will not only get back the $92,000,000 which the State is expected to subscribe, but as much more out of the first $2,000,000,000 raised by the government. Directly and indirectly, California should receive not less than $200,000,000 during the next few years from purchases of products by the Allies with money loaned to them by this government.

Charlie Chaplin, the moving-picture star, handed in one of his many subscriptions to the local committee yesterday afternoon. Mr. Chaplin said that he is making subscriptions through every bank in the country with which he has been doing business. Local bondmen say his aggregate is about $100,000.

WOMEN'S DAY.

Tomorrow (Friday) is Women's Liberty Loan Day throughout the country and a great patriotic rally has been planned for tomorrow afternoon in the room of the State Council of Defense, No. 719 South Hill street. Gov. Stephens has been invited to be present and representatives of the State organizations will speak. The principal address will be delivered by Mrs. E. D. Roberts, who will explain both the patriotic service rendered in buying a bond and likewise its value as an investment. A chorus from the Friday Morning Club will sing patriotic songs and five-minute speeches will be made by Mrs. Herbert A. Cable, chairman of the California Women's Committee of the Council of Defense; Mrs. Stella B. Irvine of Riverside; Dr. Jessie Russell, president of the State Congress of Mothers; Mrs. Maynard Force Thayer of the Daughters of the American Revolution; Mrs. O. Shepard Barnum, member of the State Board of Education; Mrs. Frances Noel, member of the State Commission of Social Insurance and president of the Woman's Trade Union League; Miss Rose Smith, president of the Y.W.C.A.; Miss Grace Stormer, representing the Native Daughters of the Golden West; Mrs. Martha McCan, representing the Red Cross; Mrs. Cameron Erskine Thom of the Colonial Dames.

The Woman's Aid Society of Immanuel Presbyterian Church at a meeting Tuesday bought a $100 bond. This probably is the first church society in Los Angeles to take such a step. One member is to give $5 a month for Red Cross supplies, and the society will donate $10 monthly for the Red Cross work that is being done by the classes at this church.

At the Bar.

GUILTY, SAYS SLAYER.

Dancing Master, Who Fatally Shot His Father-in-law During an Argument Over His Wife's Whereabouts, Pleads to Manslaughter.

Daniel Duracq, the dancing master who shot and killed his father-in-law, William Pardee, at Bell Station on New Year's Day, pleaded guilty to manslaughter in Superior Judge McCormick's court yesterday. The charge had been reduced from murder at the request of the District Attorney.

Duracq will appear Friday for sentence. He came to California from Texas in search of his wife who was living with her father. In an argument over her whereabouts, Duracq became inflamed and emtied his revolver into the body of his father-in-law.

He notified the Sheriff's office of the tragedy and then fled into the hills. Later he surrendered.

IS TWICE LOSER.

James L. Gardner, who was formerly employed as a night watchman for the Salt Lake at Las Vegas, was a double loser yesterday, when United States District Judge Trippet sustained the contention of the railroad company that his suit against the carrier, because of injuries sustained in the service, had no standing in the Federal Court, because he was not engaged in the transportation of interstate commerce. Gardner is also estopped from bringing suit in the State court, as the statute of limitation has expired, the injuries complained of having occurred in October, 1914.

WON'T TAKE OFF LIMITED TRAINS.

California Business to be as Good as Ever, Says Santa Fe's Head.

Fast limited trains to California are not to be taken off, says a telegram received yesterday by Manager Anderson of the Beverly Hills Hotel from President Ripley of the Santa Fe; neither are Pullman sleepers to be removed from service for the present.

Wars or rumors of wars to the contrary, President Ripley states that he expects summer travel to California to be fully up to the usual standard, and this means that first-class service must be offered.

President Ripley sent his telegram from Chicago, where he is in conference with other railroad heads and the National Defense Committee on the subject of necessary curtailments in rail service to meet the demands of war.

Short Cut.

TO CONSOLIDATE CASES.

Months to be Saved by Federal Judge's Action Merging Remaining Oil Fraud Cases—Testimony in Previous Suits Accepted by Stipulation.

At least three months' time will be saved in the further hearing of what are known as the oil "fraud" cases, through the action taken yesterday by United States District Judge Bledsoe, in consolidating the five remaining cases against the Southern Pacific and a host of oil companies, operators and private individuals. Many of the latter are designated as "innocent purchasers for value."

The order provides that the court shall sit in San Francisco next Monday for three days. At that hearing the final testimony in the famous civil case No. 46 will be taken and the testimony that applies to the remaining five cases adduced.

This would ordinarily mean several months' trial on the five cases, but by the stipulation entered into between the government and the defendants, it has been agreed that the testimony given as far as applicable shall be made a part of the five cases, and it is believed that by thus "cutting across lots" the entire litigation, involving hundreds of thousands of acres of valuable land and millions of dollars will be ready to submit to Judge Bledsoe next week.

RING REPORTED STOLEN.

Woman May have Been Robbed of Jewel While at Roadhouse.

Bessie Miller, No. 425 East Eighth street, who recently was arrested at a Vernon roadhouse on a charge of intoxication, reported to the county jailers yesterday that she had been robbed of a diamond ring valued at $700.

Deputy sheriffs are investigating the employees of the roadhouse to determine whether or not they took the jewel while they were restraining Miss Miller at the time of her arrest.

ALL TO WIDOW.

In executing his will, Thomas H. Ralph, who died May 21, last, left the care of his three children to their mother, Mrs. Mary Ralph, having implicit faith that she would look after them. The estate, valued in excess of $10,000, and consisting of a large ranch in Ventura, was bequeathed to the widow, together with promissory notes and 1500 shares of stock of the Western Building Investment Company. The children are Stella R. Wilson, Amelia R. Mahan and Ethel R. Bell.

For the Wounded.

AMBULANCE UNIT NEARLY FILLED.

ONLY THREE MORE CARS WILL COMPLETE SECTION.

Late C. A. Canfield's Son and Daughters Donate a Memorial Machine—Los Angeles Branch will be Ready to Sail About the End of Present Month.

The campaign for the Los Angeles section or unit of twenty motor ambulances for the relief of the French wounded is progressing satisfactorily. Thus far fifteen cars have actually been paid for. Two more are in sight and funds being rapidly collected. This leaves only three additional benefactors needed to complete the unit of twenty, and the appeal for the French wounded soldiers is more and more urgent. The son and daughters of the late C. A. Canfield have donated a memorial ambulance.

Each of these cars will have an engraved plate, bearing besides the legend, "Los Angeles Unit," the name of the donor and the intention.

The American Ambulance Field Service, since the beginning of the war, has numbered in its ranks more than 1000 young Americans, representing ninety colleges and universities. Approximately 1000 ambulances have been given and are being maintained by American citizens. These machines, running closely between the battlefields and the dressing stations, have handled practically 1,000,000 wounded soldiers who, by this means, have been treated with such efficiency that fully 50 per cent. have been saved and returned to the front.

Chivalrous France has cited section after section of these ambulance men for distinguished service, and bestowed medals upon them.

The Los Angeles unit will be ready to sail about the end of the present month from New York for Bordeaux. Candidates must be immediately inoculated against smallpox and typhoid. The inoculation period of three weeks is imperative. Further information will be supplied by L. N. Brunswig, No. 501 North Main street.

Bequests.

ESTATE TO WIDOW.

The World's Tribute to the Starr-Made Playerpiano

THERE is only one "PLAYERPIANO," just as there is only one "Kodak." "Playerpiano" is a word used first by the makers of the Starr Playerpiano.

As the name of any great original soon becomes the accepted name for its entire following, so has the name "playerpiano" become the universal term of ALL pianos with built-in player action.

Could a higher tribute be paid to any instrument than the whole world has paid to the Starr-Made Playerpiano?

Before you buy ANY instrument, do not fail to hear the Starr. The verdict of the leading musical authorities of the world will be your verdict—that in tone, in human-like touch and expressiveness and in ease and simplicity of operation the Starr has no equal. It has won the highest awards at ten international expositions.

The Starr-Made Playerpiano is sold at prices far below any player of its equal, because we are direct factory representatives and sell at factory-branch prices.

CAN'T COLLECT FOR PROVISIONS.

ROAD CONTRACTOR'S AFFAIRS GET COURT ATTENTION.

County Treasurer Plaintiff in Suit Involving Material Men's Claims Against Road Builders. Status of Boarding-house Clouds Issue in Action.

In the suit of County Treasurer Hunt against the Continental National Bank to have material men prove their claims, and for the county to deposit bonds of the Olive road improvement in court and to release it from further liability, Judge Willis yesterday allowed claims amounting to $4517 and disallowed other claims approximating $1685.

The bank was the assignee of Charles Salata, contractor for the Olive road work, and furnishing the money to pay for the work. Twenty-six claims were filed with the Board of Supervisors containing stop notices. The court found that six of the claims were not filed in time and struck them out. He also found that Mr. Salata ran a boarding-house at which his men might or might not board. As this was a private enterprise and not for the furnishing of material used in the road construction, claims filed for groceries and provisions were found not subject to stop notices. Three claims were therefore struck out.
